COALITION GOVERNMENT FORMED IN MEXICO BY ANTI-CARRANZA PARTY

WILSON DECIDING FACTOR IN DEFEAT OF PEACE TREATY

Cannot Well Make Political Issue Declares
Senator.

GIVES VIEW OF STATES

Control West Against
Ratification Says
Speaker.

Washington, March 27.—"While President Wilson was only one reason for the defeat of the treaty of Versailles, he was such a deciding factor in its defeat that he cannot well make a political issue of it before the country," Senator Capper, Republican, of Kansas, said in a statement issued today.

Senator Capper gave what he considered the view of the central west. "Party lines were interwoven in the treaty fight, Republicans and Democrats breaking away from their leaders," Capper said. "Others were held in line by the president against their will. The vote on the Democratic side showed only a slight advantage for the president against those who wished the treaty ratified as modified. He could not command the support of this vast number of Democrats in making it a party issue."

"His party, in a word, does not follow him," Capper declared. "The sentiment of the country has changed as I view it. Six months ago the people would rally about a plea for the league of nations. They today understand, or are beginning to understand, that the league without reservations would bind us to enter the fights of European nations far removed from us both in distance and in spirit. No one doubts that. The president was not willing to let those who continued to follow him approve the treaty with reserve with reservations which would have kept us from European troubles except by action of the will of the people."

"The possibility of the treaty being made an issue favorable to the president has died," concluded Capper.

GERMANS WILL NEVER AGREE TO OCCUPATION OF CITY OF FRANKFURT

Paris, March 27.—Wilhelm Mayer, German charge d'affaires in Paris, today informed the allies that Germany would never consent to the occupation of Frankfurt by French or other allied troops.

The allies are reconsidering their decision to allow France to send troops to Frankfurt and possibly other German cities in the event the German government sends a big army against the reds in the Ruhr district.

The proposal to occupy Frankfurt was made by the French. They insisted that it was necessary to occupy the city and possibly other German territory to insure the withdrawal of any German army that might be sent against the reds after its work was finished.

IS REAL ACCIDENT? ACTRESS KILLED

Geneva, March 27.—Hermanie Koller, a well-known German moving picture actress of Dresden was killed and several other actors and actresses were injured yesterday near Innsbruck in the upper steps of the Wildgratz Mountain, when an imitation avalanche according to a report received here.

Mountain scenes were being taken by a German film company at an altitude of 9,700 feet. The scene was to depict a party of 11 persons being buried by an avalanche. Just as the picture was about to be taken a real avalanche came down the mountain side and buried the company, killing Fraulein Koller and seriously injuring others.

OPEN DOOR ATTITUDE

Will Establish Diplomatic relations With All Foreign Countries.

San Antonio, Tex., March 27.—All revolutionary factions in Mexico engaged in anti-Carranza activities have formed a coalition provisional government with former President Francisco De La Barra as president. This announcement came from an authentic source here today. The new provisional government's platform includes an open door policy toward all foreigners and promises protection to foreign capital invested in Mexico.

Two representatives of each faction represented in the coalition are in the cabinet of the new government.

Provisional President De La Barra is in Paris where he has lived since 1913. The coalition, it was said here today, was largely the work of Diaz, nephew of the former dictator, who was proposed as president but his name met strong opposition from former followers of President Madero.

The immediate program of the coalition was declared today to be uncertain. Whether it will engage in a concerted movement against the Mexican government in an attempt to seat its own man will depend largely on the events of the next few months, according to information secured here today.

There is a strong rumor in Mexico that Ambassador Bonillas, if elected president, will have the moral support of the United States and if this should prove to be the case, the provisional government will take no steps, but watch the developments of the Bonillas regime.

The factions included in the new coalition are the Felicitus, the Pellistas, the Villistas, the Zapatistas and Independent Revolutionary elements. The program includes the re-establishment of the constitution of 1857, the establishment of a government that will give guarantees to both foreigners and nationals, the establishment of diplomatic relations with all foreign countries.

Washington, March 27.—Officials at the Mexican embassy here refused to give credence to the reports from San Antonio that a coalition government has been formed by the various revolutionary parties in Mexico.

GIVE FIGURES ON POPULATION OF OHIO CITIES

Washington, March 27.—Preliminary population figures were announced today by the census bureau as follows:
Newwood, O., 1920 population 24,946; increase 8,781 or 54.3 percent; 1910 population 16,165.
St. Bernard, O., 1920 population 6,312; increase 1,310 or 26.6 percent; 1910 population 5,002.

SOLDIER AID TO PASS CONGRESS IS PREDICTED BY SENATE LEADERS

Washington, March 27.—Passage of soldier aid legislation in the senate providing favorable action is taken on the question in the house was predicted today by Senate leaders.

"No group of men seem to be unanimous in their opinion as to what should be done," Senator Townsend, Republican, of Michigan, said today. "It is the general opinion among members of the senate, however, that soldier legislation will be approved here if passed in the house."

The house ways and means committee having the legislation in charge will meet next week to consider ways of raising the money. Members of the committee are divided on the means by which the money can be raised.

"Some soldier organizations are asking a cash payment for time spent in the army, navy or marine corps. Others are opposed to such action. The house is giving careful thought to the question and the attitude of the senate will be based in a large measure on the house conclusions, I feel," Senator Townsend said.

"I believe a great majority of the members of congress feel there should be something done for the former service men. The nature of this aid is the question which may cause delay."

HARDIN DECLARED SLAIN

El Paso, March 27.—Edward H. Hardin, an American resident of El Paso, found dead in Juarez, Mexico, Thursday, probably was murdered, according to American officials. Hardin apparently was killed by a blow on the head by robbers, who rifled his pockets. Hardin formerly lived at Waco, Tex.

TWO SMALL BOYS WEDGED IN CHIMNEY THIR- TEEN HOURS BEFORE THEY ARE RESCUED

After being wedged in a chimney, unable to move up or down for thirteen hours, little Mathias and Daniel Hester, seven and ten years, respectively, of Jersey City, N. J., apparently are none the worse for their harrowing experience. While playing ball on the street the youngsters batted the ball to the roof of a nearby warehouse. They both climbed to the roof of the building. Looking down the chimney the boys decided to play Santa Clause, climbed in, and got about half way down. They became wedged in the narrow chimney and were unable to move up or down. They spent the entire night in their cramped prison. Their cries for help were heard by a night watchman making his rounds, and he traced the cries to the chimney. With the aid of two policemen, the watchman dropped a rope to the youngsters and hauled them to the top. The boys were stiff and numb when rescued, but suffered no serious effects. On the left is a diagram showing how the boys went down the chimney from the roof and how they were trapped half way down.

RUSSIAN BOLSHEVIK TROOPS TAKE CITY OF VILNA FROM POLE FORCES

If Reports are Correct Bolsheviks Have Gained 115 Miles of Poland Territory Within the Past Few Days.

Berlin: Report received that Russian bolshevik forces have captured Vilna from Poles.

Berlin, March 27.—Russian bolshevik troops on the offensive city in the territory occupied by the at a terrific pace, according to an unconfirmed rumor reaching here today. They were reported to have captured Vilna from the Poles. It is reported that the Polish government was removed from Warsaw to Stromberg on Thursday night.

Stromberg is in the province of Posen in eastern Prussia. Under the terms of the peace treaty it was given to Poland. Vilna is an important city in the territory occupied by the Polish troops during their steady movement into Russia throughout 1919.

If the report of the capture of Vilna is correct it shows that the bolshevik armies driving against the Poles have advanced about 115 miles in four days.

CANDIDATES ARE CHALLENGED FOR MONEY EXPECTED

Governor Lowden Demands Publication of Expenses.

Chicago, March 27.—All presidential candidates were challenged today by Governor Frank O. Lowden to a showdown of their campaign funds and expenditures. The following telegram sent by Lowden to Senator Borah was made public by the Lowden campaign committee today:

"The statement made by you in the senate Friday with reference to the expenditures of the various candidates in the presidential campaign to date, so far as it applies to me, is in no way warranted by the facts. I will gladly join with all other candidates for the Republican nomination for president in submitting to yourself or to a committee to be appointed by you all expenditures made in the campaign, together with names of contributors and amounts contributed, and all books, records and vouchers, for the purpose of the widest publicity. I sincerely hope that this may be done, and at once."

WOMEN KILLED IN SHELLING GERMAN REDS

London, March 27.—Thirty civilians, mostly women and children, have been killed in the violent artillery duel between German reds and government troops at Wesel, said a news agency dispatch from Berlin today. The bombardment continues. Advice from Aix La Chappelle said that the commander of the reds has apologized to the commander of the Belgian troops on the Belgian frontier because German shells fell on Belgian territory.

FOUR DEAD IN SMASH BETWEEN TRAIN AND BUS IN PHILADELPHIA

Philadelphia, March 27.—At least four persons are dead and ten others are reported injured in a collision today between a passenger motor bus and a P. and R. Hog Island train. The motor truck was loaded with employees of the Atlantic Refining company, Point Breeze. As the bus approached the rail crossing at 63rd street and Gibson avenue, Jean Green, the chauffeur, saw the train coming, but owing to a slippery grade, could not stop his car in time to avoid the accident.

DAYLIGHT SAVING PLAN FAVORED BY THE MAJORITY OF RAILROAD MEN IN XENIA SAYS CLAIM AGENT

"I am heartily in favor of the daylight saving plan and I believe that the majority of railroad men are also in favor of it," said M. W. Monroe, of this city, Claim Agent for the Pennsylvania Railroad Company when interviewed on the question Saturday afternoon.

"I want to see the measure pass," said Mr. Monroe, "and I am satisfied that a great number of the railroad employees, especially clerks and the men in offices, are in favor of it."

"I think this statement that railroad employees do not want to have

LUDENDORFF BLAMED

Maximilian Harden Declares Democracy is Inevitable.

London, March 27.—Suspicion of the political disorders in Germany was voiced by the Daily Mail today. The resignation of the new German cabinet, leaving the whole country in a virtual state of anarchy, is called "a possible dodge to dupe allies."

The Daily Mail says it is significant that the German riots should begin at a time when the country is filled with arms and ammunition which should have been turned over to the allies under the terms of the treaty.

"The recent militaristic coup in Germany was engineered by Ludendorff," declared Maximilian Harden, famous German editor, in an interview given to the Berlin correspondent of the Daily Express.

"It had all the earmarks of a Ludendorff offensive. It began brilliantly but quickly petered out. The outcome will be general elections which will certainly have democratic influence upon the country. The present government is merely a camouflage of democracy. It has held Germany up to be the ridicule of the world."

Herr Harden denied that the present troubles in Germany were caused by the treaty with reservations, unrest resulting from the war and poor leaders were the reasons.

HOOVER FAVORS PUBLICITY OF ELECTION FUNDS

Reiterates the Statement
That He is Not a Candidate.

Washington, March 27.—Reiterating his statement of March 8, that he is not a candidate for the presidential nomination, Herbert Hoover, today in a letter to the Plumb plan league, announced that "as a citizen" he advocates full publicity of campaign funds. Hoover's letter was in reply to a questionnaire sent out by the Plumb plan league asking all candidates where their campaign funds came from and inquiring whether they would join in a petition to congress for laws compelling publicity as to campaign funds.

"As I have no campaign I have no finance," Hoover wrote. "A number of clubs have sprung up, doing me the honor of advocating my nomination. I have no knowledge of their resources, which probably are very small. I have no doubt that they would be only too glad to keep their books open for inspection at all times. As I have not offered myself for candidacy it would seem to me inappropriate for me to make an application to congress. As a citizen I advocate the accomplishment of a full publicity and proper restrictions."

CANAIANS WANT $2,500 BONUS

Montreal, March 27.—Canadian ex-servicemen now want a bonus from the government ranging from a minimum of $1,000 to a maximum of $2,500 according to resolutions adopted last night at the annual convention of the Great War Veterans' Association of Canada.

PRISONER THINKS BETTER OF ESCAPE AS LEAD FLIES

Cold lead spouting about his heels, took all the wanderlust out of Ed, ward Wilson, prisoner of the Xenia Work House, who escaped from a gang of street workers on North Detroit street about seven o'clock Saturday morning, but was recaptured after a short escape.

Patrolman Michael Graham saw the prisoner leave the gang and re-warded Guard Robert McNamee. The two gave chase and when the man turned in the yard at the home of Deputy Sheriff George Birch on North King street, McNamee shot at him and the prisoner stopped. He threatened to show fight when the officers approached but was soon subdued.

Frank Carr, who escaped from a street gang several days ago has not yet been apprehended.

FORMER CLERK INDICTED SAT. BY GRAND JURY

George W. Sheets Is Charged With Offense.

George W. Sheets was arraigned before Judge C. H. Kyle at 1:30 Saturday afternoon on the indictment charging embezzlement. He entered a plea of not guilty, and his bond was fixed at $1,000, which was furnished. His counsel said that their client would be ready to try the case in three weeks, and it will probably be assigned for trial next month.

George W. Sheets, former clerk of the Greene county courts, who was removed from office last week by Judge C. H. Kyle, was indicted by the grand jury at a called session Saturday on a charge of embezzling county funds totalling $4708.91, between January 1, 1918, and March 19, 1920.

The grand jury, in charge of Prosecuting Attorney Harry D. Smith, went into session at 9 o'clock and at 11:30 was ready to make its report to Judge Kyle. Only two witnesses were called in the Sheets' case. John A. Bliss, supervising examiner of the State Bureau of Accounting, whose report of conditions as he found them, after making a special examination of the clerk's records led to Mr. Sheets' removal from office, and County Commissioner R. D. Williamson were summoned to testify.

While Examiner Bliss made a special report of his findings to Judge Kyle last week, his detailed report covering his entire investigation was not received until Friday.

The report showed trust funds of the clerk's records as directed, from $4708.91. To this the examiner added interest on trust funds not accounted for, $108.50, and estimated cost of recording and indexing 188 cases, $282, making a total of $5099.49, which the examiner holds to be due the county.

Examiner Bliss' official report was made to Auditor of State A. V. Donahay, as chief of the Department of Inspection and Supervision of Public Offices, and copies of the report were sent to the clerk of the courts and Prosecuting Attorney Harry D. Smith.

In submitting his report, Mr. Bliss addressed Auditor Donahay a letter which he appended to the report, in which he announced that he had made the examination and audit of the clerk's records as directed, from the time he took the office February 5, 1917, and March 1, 1920, and continues:

"We found the cash book in such a chaotic condition that we were obliged to send for our assistant, Mr. Brick, in order to make a detailed audit of said record."

"It was found that many serious errors had been made in writing up the cash book, both of omission and commission, and that the clerk was not giving proper attention to the duties of his office by failure to account for public funds, and to keep the dockets, journals and complete records written up as required by law."

The examination of records in Mr. Sheets office was requested from the state department by Judge Kyle after local accountants who had gone over the records both for the county and for Mr. Sheets, had discovered a large apparent deficit. Mr. Bliss was sent here by Auditor of State Donahay, and began his investigations March 1. He was assisted in the examination by James E. Brick of the same department.

REDS ENTER WESEL BUT ARE DRIVEN OUT BY FEDERALS

Chaotic Conditions Reported Throughout
Entire Land.

GAINS ARE REPORTED

Sharp Shelling Between Reds and Federals In North.

Paris, March 27.—A small detachment of German reds entered Wesel, the scene of the most violent fighting in western Germany but were afterward driven out, according to information from Cologne today. The German government forces were still holding the city early today.

Berlin, March 26.—(Night)—Bands of German reds have broken away from the Spartacist army and are reported to have begun to pillage various parts of the country. Reports were received from Plauen that detachments of communist raiders under Herr Hoeltz, a well known Spartacist leader, were plundering many towns in this district.

The reichswehr have captured Gotha from the Spartacists. Heavy artillery duelling was reported from Wesel, district of Westphalia. Following a day of bombardments and sharp infantry fighting the city remained in the hands of the reichswehr according to reports received here tonight.

The workmen army is showing a high degree of military skill. It is composed chiefly of ex-veterans of the world war who learned the game of war on the battlefields of France and Russia. The reichswehr is directed mainly by young and inexperienced officers who lack the experience of the tried red leaders. The staff work of the red army is said by army officers here to be excellent. This is attributed to Captain Boelcke, brother of the famous German "ace" who has been directing the operations of the Spartacists.

A "cleaning up movement" has been started in Berlin by the reichswehr. Thousands of hidden rifles and great quantities of ammunition were found during the raids that were carried out today.

DR. R. H. GRUBE NEW PRESIDENT OF ASSN. OF HEALTH COMMITTEE

Dr. R. H. Grube, health commissioner for Greene county was elected president of the Association of Health Commissioners of Southwest Ohio, at an organization meeting held in Cincinnati this week. Dr. Tate, the district superintendent was elected secretary.

Counties represented at the meeting were: Hamilton, Butler, Preble, Montgomery, Clarke, Greene, Clinton, Warren, Highland, Pike, Scioto, Adams, Brown and Clermont. Dr. Grube who was elected president of the organization, is health officer for Xenia, as well as commissioner for the county, and was formerly a member of the State Board of Health.

State Health Commissioner Freeman, chief of the division of contagious diseases, Dr. Boudreau, who is well known in Xenia, and Miss Cunningham from the division of nursing of the State Department of Health were present and gave interesting talks, outlining the scope of the work of the commissioners, which is almost new in this state inasmuch as it extends to the rural communities the same public health protection as has heretofore been enjoyed only by the larger cities.

While the new plan has been in operation only a short time, all attending the meeting were enthusiastic over the possibilities before them. The association will meet again early in May, in Cincinnati.

CEDARVILLE MAN INDICTED BY JURY

Andrew Winter, prominent Cedarville man was indicted on a charge of assault and battery by the grand jury which reported to Judge Kyle at noon Saturday.

The charge against him was preferred by his sister Miss Isabelle Winter, and the assault is alleged to have occurred at Cedarville February 26.

Miss Winters is principal of the high school at Painesville, Ohio. The alleged assault is said to have occurred while she was at her home owing to the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Nancy Winter, who later died. By the will of Mrs. Winter, who was pronounced this week, Mr. Winter is given a bequest more than the share of his two sisters.

WILSON DECIDING FACTOR IN DEFEAT OF PEACE TREATY

Cannot Well Make Political Issue Declares Senator.

GIVES VIEW OF STATES

Control West Against Ratification Says Speaker.

Washington, March 27.—"While President Wilson was only one reason for the defeat of the treaty of Versailles, he was such a deciding factor in its defeat that he cannot well make a political issue of it before the country," Senator Capper, Republican, of Kansas, said in a statement issued today.

Senator Capper gave what he considered the view of the central west. "Party lines were interwoven in the treaty fight, Republicans and Democrats breaking away from their leaders," Capper said. "Others were held in line by the president against their will. The vote on the Democratic side showed only a slight advantage for the president against those who wished the treaty ratified as modified. He could not command the support of this vast number of Democrats in making it a party issue."

"His party, in a word, does not follow him," Capper declared. "The sentiment of the country has changed as I view it. Six months ago the people would rally about a plea for the league of nations. They today understand, or are beginning to understand, that the league without reservations would bind us to enter the fights of European nations far removed from us both in distance and in spirit. No one denies that. The president was not willing to let those who continued to follow him approve the treaty with reserve with reservations which would have kept us from European troubles except by action of the will of the people."

"The possibility of the treaty being made an issue favorable to the president has died," concluded Capper.

GERMANS WILL NEVER AGREE TO OCCUPATION OF CITY OF FRANKFURT

Paris, March 27.—Wilhelm Mayer, German chargé d'affaires in Paris, today informed the allies that Germany would never consent to the occupation of Frankfurt by French or other allied troops.

The allies are reconsidering their decision to allow France to send troops to Frankfurt and possibly other German cities in the event the German government sends a big army against the reds in the Ruhr district.

The proposal to occupy Frankfurt was made by the French. They insisted that it was necessary to occupy the city and possibly other German territory to insure the withdrawal of any German army that might be sent against the reds after its work was finished.

"Germany will never consent to the occupation of Frankfurt," said Herr Mayer. "In case allied troops enter the parts of Germany not occupied by them at present the German government might as well throw up its hands and accept a red republic as inevitable."

It is expected that the allies will come to a new decision on the German situation immediately as reports of hard fighting in the Ruhr district arrive here.

DAYLIGHT SAVING PLAN FAVORED BY THE MAJORITY OF RAILROAD MEN IN XENIA SAYS CLAIM AGENT

"I am heartily in favor of the daylight saving plan and I believe that the majority of railroad men are also in favor of it," said M. W. Monroe, of this city, Claim Agent for the Pennsylvania Railroad Company when interviewed on the question Saturday afternoon.

"I want to see the measure pass," said Mr. Monroe, "and I am satisfied that a great number of the railroad employees, especially clerks and men in offices, are in favor of it. I think this statement that railroad employees do not want to have daylight saving is all bosh," continued the railroad official. If the change of time is to be so confusing to them, how about the railroad men working out of Dayton, Springfield, Columbus, Cincinnati and other cities where the plan has been adopted?

"If daylight saving is defeated here by the commission, it will make this town conspicuous among other cities of this vicinity, as turning down the plan when it has been adopted elsewhere. I think it is the duty of this commission to pass favorably upon the plan. This commission should undertake to defeat the proposition by upholding any one side, as it is elected to represent the people at large."

"As for the statement that there will be a referendum on the question in other cities, I do not think this is true. If there is, the commission here can do the same as the other cities."

Other railroad officials talked to Saturday afternoon expressed a similar opinion on the matter. "I am decidedly in favor of it," said one official, although he did not wish to be quoted publicly on the matter.

Bliss, supervising examiner of the State Bureau of Accounting, whose report of conditions as he found them, after making a special examination of the clerk's records led to Mr. Sheets' removal from office, and County Commissioner R. D. Williamson were summoned to testify.

While Examiner Bliss made a special report of his findings to Judge Kyle last week, his detailed report covering his entire investigation was not received until Friday.

The report showed trust funds of the clerk's records as directed, from $4708.91. To this the examiner added interest on trust funds not accounted for, $108.50, and estimated cost of recording and indexing 188 cases, $282, making a total of $5099.49, which the examiner holds to be due the county.

Examiner Bliss' official report was made to Auditor of State A. V. Donahay, as chief of the Department of Inspection and Supervision of Public Offices, and copies of the report were sent to the clerk of the courts and to Prosecuting Attorney Harry D. Smith.

In submitting his report, Mr. Bliss addressed Auditor Donahay a letter, in which he appended to the report, in which he announced that he had made the examination and audit of the clerk's records as directed, from the time he took the office February 5, 1917, and March 1, 1920, and continues:

"We found the cash book in such a chaotic condition that we were obliged to send for our assistant, Mr. Breik, in order to make a detailed audit of said record."

"We were also ably assisted by his honor Judge Kyle, and the deputy clerk of the courts."

"It was found that many serious errors had been made in writing up the cash book, both of omission and commission, and that the clerk was not giving proper attention to the duties of his office by failure to account for public funds, and to keep the dockets, journals and complete records written up as required by law."

The examination of records in Mr. Sheets' office was requested from the state department by Judge Kyle after local accountants who had gone over the records both for the county and for Mr. Sheets, had discovered a large apparent deficit. Mr. Bliss was sent here by Auditor of State Donahay, and began his investigations March 1. He was assisted in the examination by James E. Brick of the same department.

WANT INDEPENDENCE

Paris, March 27.—German reds in Westphalia are expected to proclaim an independent republic today, said a dispatch from Mayence to the Echo De Paris.

REDS ENTER WESEL BUT ARE DRIVEN OUT BY FEDERALS

Chaotic Conditions Reported Throughout Entire Land.

GAINS ARE REPORTED

Sharp Shelling Between Reds and Federals In North.

Paris, March 27.—A small detachment of German reds entered Wesel, the scene of the most violent fighting in western Germany but were afterward driven out, according to information from Cologne today. The German government forces were still holding the city early today.

Berlin, March 26.—(Night)—Bands of German reds have broken away from the Spartacist army and are reported to have begun to pillage various parts of the country. Reports were received from Plauen that detachments of communist raiders under Herr Hoeltz, a well known Spartacist leader, were plundering many towns in this district.

The reichswehr have captured Gotha from the Spartacists.

Heavy artillery duelling was reported from Wesel, district of Westphalia. Following a day of bombardments and sharp infantry fighting the city remained in the hands of the reichswehr according to reports received here tonight.

The workmen's army is showing a high degree of military skill. It is composed chiefly of ex-veterans of the world war who learned the game of war on the battlefields of France and Russia. The reichswehr is directed mainly by young and inexperienced officers who lack the experience of the tried red leaders.

The staff work of the red army is said by army officers here to be excellent. This is attributed to Captain Boeleke, brother of the famous German "ace" who has been directing the operations of the Spartacists.

"Cleaning up movement" has been started in Berlin by the reichswehr. Thousands of hidden rifles and great quantities of ammunition were found during the raids that were carried out today.

DR. R. H. GRUBE NEW PRESIDENT OF ASSN. OF HEALTH COMMITTEE

Dr. R. H. Grube, health commissioner for Greene county was elected president of the Association of Health Commissioners of Southwestern Ohio, at an organization meeting held in Cincinnati this week. Dr. Tate, the district superintendent was elected secretary.

Counties represented at the meeting were: Hamilton, Butler, Preble, Montgomery, Clarke, Greene, Clinton, Warren, Highland, Pike, Scioto, Adams, Brown and Clermont. Dr. Grube who was elected president of the organization, is health officer for Xenia, as well as commissioner for the county, and was formerly a member of the State Board of Health.

State Health Commissioner Freeman, chief of the division of contagious diseases, Dr. Boudreau, who is well known in Xenia, and Miss Cunningham from the division of nursing of the State Department of Health were present and gave interesting talks, outlining the scope of the work of the commissioners, which is almost new in this state inasmuch as it extends to the rural communities the same public health protection as has heretofore been enjoyed only by the larger cities.

While the new plan has been in operation only a short time all attending the meeting were enthusiastic over the possibilities before them. The association will meet again early in May, in Cincinnati.

CEDARVILLE MAN INDICTED BY JURY

Andrew Winter, prominent Cedarville man was indicted on a charge of assault and battery by the grand jury which reported to Judge Kyle at noon Saturday.

The charge against him was preferred by his sister Miss Isabelle Winters, and the assault is alleged to have occurred at Cedarville February 26.

Miss Winters is principal of the high school at Painesville, Ohio. The alleged assault is said to have occurred while she was at her home owing to the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Nancy Winter, who later died. B. the will of Mrs. Winter, which was probated this week, Mr. Winter is given a bequest more than the share of his two sisters.

COURT NEWS

Alleging gross neglect of duty, Benjamin F. Chambliss has brought suit for divorce from Nettie May Chambliss. They were married March 17, 1912, and have two children, aged 7 and 3 years. The plaintiff avers that the defendant refused to stay at home and take care of the house and children, and ran about with other men. He says that he had to do most of the cooking. Last September, he alleges the defendant left him and the children, E. D. Smith, attorney.

Warren Stephens has been granted a decree of divorce from Helen E. Stephens on the grounds of neglect of duty. The defendant was restored to her maiden name, Babb.

DEFEAT OF TREATY PLOT AGAINST WILSON SAYS U. S. SENATOR

Jackson, Miss., March 27.—Addressing a joint session of the Mississippi legislature today, Senator John Sharp Williams declared it "was the deliberate purpose of those who fought ratification of the peace treaty to protract the illness and bring about the death of President Wilson."

Senator Williams declared historians would brand the present time "as the period of the great conspiracy," by which the league of nations was defeated in the U. S. senate.

"Do you blame me," he asked, "for saying that I would rather be a dog and bay at the moon than to spend one minute in the senate after the expiration of my time of office?"

Senator Williams declared the "period of the great conspiracy" started even before "one syllable of the league of nations was put on paper"; that it started in Washington with the announcement that the president would head the peace delegation to Paris.

"It was engineered," he said, "by a lot of cheap, two-by-four politicians. I call them that because that is what they are. I care not how high their station."

In The Realm of SPORTS In The Spot-Light

MAKING THE MOST OF THE TALES FROM SPRING TRAINING CAMPS

New Orleans, La., March 26.—(Special)—The regulars on the Indian squad, in training down here, probably will lay off kiding the bush leaguers with the team for some time to come. And the cookies can thank Jess Perkins, demon slugger from the mountains, for the rest.

When Jess blew into camp one day he carried the customary luggage and a small crate with a Plymouth Rock hen in it. That hen gave the kidders a great chance.

"Bring it along to teach the batters how to lay 'em down?" asked one humcrst.

"Going to have your own fresh eggs every morning?" yowled someone else.

Jess said nothing. Just got busy. He carted the hen back and forth to the park every day, staking it out in centerfield while practice was on. Pretty soon everybody forgot about the hen.

Then, when the pitchers began to unlimber, Perkins unlimbered his bat—and boys, how he hit.

He knocked everything they served him to all corners of the lot. Covelaskie's spitter, Morton's squirrel-killing ball and Bert Nicholas' soupy slants were pie for him. At first the pitchers and Manager Speaker kidded him. Then they began to get nervous. The more stuff the pitchers used the harder Perkins hit.

"He'll send some of us to the bushes if we don't get hep to him soon," was the verdict.

And someone got wise. The hen out in center field had been in on the deal. She had been trained to flash the catcher's signals back to Perkins with her wings and legs.

When she saw three fingers sticking below the catcher's mitt she simply stood on one leg and dropped one wing. Perkins knew that an outcurve was coming. When she dropped both wings and stretched her neck Perkins set himself for a slow ball.

FAMILY UNABLE TO SLEEP; ROAD PAYS DAMAGES

Baltimore, March 27.—Mrs. Donald L. Symington of Greene Spring Valley, received a verdict of $2,750 from a jury in a suit against Walker D. Hines, federal railroad administrator, and the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. Mrs. Symington asked for $25,000.

Mrs. Symington claimed that the ringing of a big bell, blowing of engine whistles and shifting of cars kept members of her family awake.

Mrs. Symington also contended that a hedge on her property was destroyed and that a portion of her land was used by the company.

DELAWARE WILL PASS ON SUFFRAGE NEXT WEEK; ISSUE DOUBTFUL

Dover, Del., March 27.—Disposal by the Delaware legislature of the proposed woman suffrage constitutional amendment not later than Wednesday was in prospect when both houses adjourned until Monday. Ratification continued doubtful, rival camps holding steadfast to respective predictions of ratification and defeat.

Arrangements for voting next week were completed today by Republican leaders working for ratification. They dropped plans to have the senate vote today and arranged to take the first vote in the house. There the ratification resolution is to be reported from the committee Tuesday, probably without recommendation. An immediate roll call on adoption may ensue, but leaders believed the vote would not come until Wednesday.

Plans now call for the house vote prior to the senate's with the latter prepared to act immediately after the house decision.

The program of delay, leaders of suffragists and the opposition said, was by mutual concessions. The anti-suffragists were prepared to force the ratification resolution before the house today.

With the opponents admittedly having a present house majority, the suffragists leaders said they agreed to report out the resolution Tuesday, under agreement by the opposition to drop the hostile movement proposed until Wednesday.

MORGENTHAU FAVORED BY MEXICAN OFFICIALS

Mexico City, March 27.—Henry Morgenthau is entirely acceptable to Mexico as U. S. Ambassador, it was officially announced by the government today. It was said that Mr. Morgenthau "would be welcomed and received by President Carranza." It had been reported that the new American ambassador was a member of the Association for the Protection of American rights in Mexico, an organization against which the Mexican government is very hostile, but investigation proved this to be incorrect. Before the report was found to be untrue rumors were current that Mexico would ask the United States to reconsider the appointment of Mr. Morgenthau.

Interest is spreading in the organization of Central High School Alumni "X" Association, which is being propagated here.

A meeting for the purpose of organization will be held in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock, and all graduates of the local High School who have won a letter in any branch of sports, are invited to be present.

The purposes of the proposed association are manifold, and it bears the endorsement of many letter men who have been consulted as well as authorities at the school. Coach Paires, in charge of athletics at Central High, is in favor of the project and will lend it active support.

Not only letter men, but those who played in athletics prior to the time that letters were given for athletic ability at the school, are expected to be present at the meeting Monday night.

DEFEAT OF TREATY PLOT AGAINST WILSON SAYS U. S. SENATOR

Jackson, Miss., March 27.—Addressing a joint session of the Mississippi legislature today, Senator John Sharpe Williams declared it "was the deliberate purpose of those who fought ratification of the peace treaty to protract the illness and bring about the death of President Wilson."

Senator Williams declared historians would brand the present time "as the period of the great conspiracy," by which the league of nations was defeated in the U. S. senate.

"Do you blame me," he asked, "for saying that I would rather be a dog and bay at the moon than to spend one minute in the senate after the expiration of my term of office?"

Senator Williams declared the "period of the great conspiracy" started even before "one syllable of the league of nations was put on paper," that it started in Washington with the announcement that the president would head the peace delegation to Paris.

"It was engineered," he said, "by a lot of cheap, two-by-four politicians. I call them that because that is what they are. I care not how high their station."

N. & W. MEN WILL TAKE STRIKE VOTE IN CAPITOL SATURDAY

Columbus, O., March 27.—Local clerks and freight handlers employed by the Norfolk and Western Railroad have been ordered to quit work by E. C. Lane, general chairman of the Brotherhood at Norfolk. President J. P. Galvin of the local Brotherhood received a telegram from Lane yesterday, but J. J. Forrester, national president, did not reply to Galvin's request for orders.

Galvin has called a meeting of all clerks and freight handlers, union and nonunion, to vote finally on Lane's orders at a meeting tonight at the Schultz building. He said 150 will attend. Although a minority of the organization voted to strike Thursday night, Galvin said he wants the sentiment of all members.

If the vote is to strike employees will not work tomorrow, Galvin said.

OIL BIDS IN WEST FAR BELOW EAST

Washington, March 27.—Less than one-fifth of the fuel oil requirements of the navy on the Pacific Coast for the next fiscal year were covered in bids opened by the navy department. Against requests for 4,500,000 barrels, the department received but one bid for 602,000 barrels from the Standard Oil Co. of California.

Prices quoted were more than 50 per cent under those submitted in recent bids for Atlantic Coast delivery, averaging $1.95 for port delivery, against $4.20 for the East coast.

MAKING THE MOST OF THE TALES FROM SPRING TRAINING CAMPS

New Orleans, La., March 26.—(Special)—The regulars on the Indian squad, in training down here, probably will lay off kidding the bush leaguers with the team for some time to come. And the cookies can thank Jess Perkins, demon slugger from the mountains, for the rest.

Here's how. When Jess blew into camp one day he carried the customary luggage and a small crate with a Plymouth Rock hen in it. That hen gave the kidders a great chance.

"Bring it along to teach the batters how to lay 'em down?" asked one humorist.

"Going to have your own fresh eggs every morning?" yowled someone else.

Jess said nothing. Just got busy. He carted the hen back and forth to the park every day, staking it out in centerfield while practice was on. Pretty soon everybody forgot about the hen.

Then, when the pitchers began to unlimber, Perkins unlimbered his bat—and boys, how he hit.

He knocked everything they served him to all corners of the lot. Coveleskie's spitter, Morton's squirrel-killing ball and Bert Niehaus' southpaw slants were pie for him. At first the pitchers and Manager Speaker kidded him. Then they began to get nervous. The more stuff the pitchers used the harder Perkins hit.

"He'll send some of us to the bushes if we don't get hep to him soon," was the verdict.

And someone got wise. The hen out in center field had been in on the deal. She had been trained to flash the catcher's signals back to Perkins with her wings and legs.

When she saw three fingers sticking below the catcher's mitt she simply stood on one leg and dropped one wing. Perkins knew that an outcurve was coming. When she dropped both wings and stretched her neck Perkins set himself for a slow ball.

A SEASONABLE THOUGHT TO COUNTERACT THE HIGH COST OF LIVING.

To act with common sense, according to the moment, is the best wisdom there is going. And the best philosophy is to go right along performing one's ordinary duties, take the world as it comes, submit ungrudgingly to one's lot, and thank God that things are as well with us as they are. And if you can add to this the enjoyment of humor, you are more than a philosopher, you have reached the acme of the art of living.

Well now, the Treaty hasn't passed, as we had hoped it would, but God is in His heavens and the world will move on as before; but also the high cost of living continues and it is up to us to do the best we can about that. Well, sugar making has just passed, which shows that the sap is rising, and all nature preparing for a grand spring "opening." Has this any lesson for us? Shouldn't it have?

To millions of people all over this broad land it means that garden making time has arrived. Why—because therein lies about all the hope they have of counteracting the high cost of living. Have the back yard gardens performed this wonderful trick? Yes, in millions of instances all over the country—and in hundreds of cases right here in Xenia and all over Greene county.

Does it require work—oh yes, a little on Monday, a little on Tuesday, and a little on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday—a little each day, just enough to stir the blood to healthy action—just enough activity to save doctor bills.

And then think of the delights. Think of the succulent roasting-ears, of the new potatoes, of the lettuce and radishes and onions, of the tomatoes, beets and beans. Not stale from the grocery, but fresh from your own garden. Doesn't it make your mouth water? Well, you can realize it in all its delightful, toothsome fact. Plant a garden.

Here is a chance for everybody practically to get into the economic game. Back yards, vacant lots, plots, idle corners all should be utilized in every city in the land. There is a vast quantity of uncultivated ground in every city. Put it to work; cultivate it intensively; now is the time to get to work. Life is struggling upward. The gnomes of the dark are willing workers. There is rich wine dripping from the golden chalice of the sun. The hoe and the spade and the rake will enable you to touch the springs of vitality. Remember what the war gardens did for the country. Here is an opportunity to assure the thing the economists and statesmen and thinkers continuously are pleading for—increased production. Accept the baptism of the sunshine and the showers. Plant a garden.

CONDITIONS IN GERMANY.

There are so many cooks on the seething broth of the German political and industrial crisis that it is difficult to learn what actually is going on or whether events are trending. Members of the government, party representatives, labor leaders of four or five different stripes, strike committees, insurgents and semi-insurgents, virtually are in continuous conferences with themselves and each other. Positive announcements of the most conflicting nature are constantly issuing from those conferences, such as a labor government will or will not be installed or that the general strike is off or on, depending upon the source of information.

German news agency dispatches from various points in the interior reporting heavy fighting and the capture of various cities by the Red forces does not conform with government assurances and that the situation is improving, and that no tendency toward Bolshevism is shown.

Who knows but what it is just as well for us to now be out of Europe, "lock, stock and barrel," as it would have been a year ago? At all events, we don't want to sacrifice any more of the lives of our dear boys over there. The George Washington Farewell Address against "entangling alliances" is just as much alive today as it was when uttered on September 17th, 1796.

ONE YEAR'S FIRE WASTE.

Three hundred and fifty million dollars' waste in fire losses, and a toll of 15,000 deaths from fire, during one year—this is the record shown by the latest annual report of the National Board of Fire Underwriters.

The board has issued a pamphlet listing the causes which led to the losses reported above. A careful perusal of it shows that by far the greater percentage of these fires might have been prevented. Among the causes given were all of our old friends, the lighted match or cigarette thrown carelessly away, the pile of rubbish, the oil can placed in an unsafe spot, the defective chimney, the overheated stove, the electric iron left connected, the hot grease overflowing the pan, the bonfire, the sparks from the unprotected piece of machinery igniting the oily shop floor, of the bunch of shavings and so on. Twenty-two reasons in all are given for fires which could have been avoided.

It is a list which deserves wide publicity. Few can read it with out a guilty feeling, for nearly every one is certain to run across something in which he is occasionally or habitually careless.

A waste of $350,000,000 which could have been saved deserves sober consideration as an active force in sustaining that same old H. C. L. And in these days when production falls so far short, the contemplation of all this destruction which might have been avoided is disheartening.

Certainly the figures indicate plainly the need for better methods of fire prevention on the part of the individual and public as a whole.

It is often a peculiar tendency of human nature that a commendable movement is hindered in its execution by absurd argument and foolish rumor and the daylight saving plan which has been proposed for Xenia is being assailed by much of this kind of talk, which simmers the question down to whether the people shall have what they want or whether they shall not.

There must be adventurous souls to make for progress, but before taking a trip to Mars we should desire to know something of weather conditions on that planet, especially right now.

The ex-Kaiser probably daily congratulates himself on his wisdom in seeking a safe retreat before the storm in Germany broke, for with his notorious habit of sending men resembling himself into places where he was likely to encounter danger, it is entirely probable that he would have run out of material long ago.

HELPING HANDS.

"If I had a lot of money," sighs the man of dreaming soul. "I would make the world more sunny, help the people from the hole. I'd take bitters to the thirsty, heal the sick ones' pains and aches, and pack victuals wieners-wurst to the hungry rubes in jakes. But I'm poor, and this world loses; I can drip no golden rubes; ah, that pent-up Syracuse is contracting of my power!" But a man can make things better, make his fellows smile again, though the belt beneath his sweater holds no store of iron men. I have known some benefactors who were lacking fifteen cents, and they were the ablest actors in the ranks of helpful gents. You can give a friend assistance, help a neighbor every day, though your roll be in the distance, forty thousand miles away. You can cheer some struggling mortal, tote his burden for a while, hand the heartsick one a chortle, and the grouchy one a smile. If you had a lot of plunder, bundles that would choke a cow, would you do much more. I wonder, than we see you doing now?

"And this unfortunate patient?" queried the doctor at the asylum.

"Does he give you any trouble?"

"Not much; but the only way we can keep him quiet is to pay him $30,000 in stage money every Saturday night."

Mrs. Ghostwalk had got the spiritualistic craze, and got into the habit of receiving messages from the departed when she ought to have been making her husband a dinner. Hubby protested, and then he acted. In a week she was cured, and his friends marvelled.

"How did you do it?" they asked him.

"Oh," said he, smiling, "I got the craze, too, and every seance we went to I got a loving message from my first wife—see?"

The curly-haired little sprite of the house came running to her father in the study, and throwing her arms about his neck, whispered confidentially in his ear: "Oh, papa, it's raining!"

Papa was writing on a subject that occupied his mind to the exclusion of matters aside, so he said, rather sharply, "Well, let it rain."

"Yes, papa, I was going to," was her quick response.

"How did you enjoy yourself?" asked one of the maidens.

"Oh! I have had such a time. Do you know, I feel perfectly abandoned. I feel ready to go to any length. I feel so reckless that I'm going home in a smoking carriage!"

PERSONNEL OF NAVY INADEQUATE TESTIFIES CAPTAIN IN HEARING

Washington, March 26.—The United States navy operated through out the war with an inadequately trained personnel because of the act upon the recommendations made prior to the war by the general board, the commanders of the Atlantic fleet and other authorities, Captain J. Taussing today declared before the senate subcommittee investigating the conduct of the navy during the war.

"The personnel of the navy was entirely inadequate for peace purposes when the world war started in 1914," Taussing said.

"The efficiency of the entire navy was adversely affected by the great shortage of personnel."

New York, March 26.—The use of strike breakers by the United Fruit Company to handle incoming freight precipitated the threat today of a boycott of all coastwise freight by 10,000 dock workers on six eastern longshoremen. Leaders of the striking longshoremen and allied pier workers today declared the railroad employees would refuse to handle "float" shipments if R.R. is not completed. ## Is It Yours

This is the Birthday of Gurdon Saltonstall March 27, 1866.

Gurdon Saltonstall, one of the early governors of Connecticut, was born at Haverhill, Mass., in 1866. He was unusually bright as a boy, graduating from Harvard in 1884, when he was only 18 years old.

When Governor Winthrop died, it developed that most of his correspondence during his illness had been turned over to Saltonstall. Consequently, he knew more about the complicated relationship between England and her New England colonies than anybody else. As a result, he was very sensibly elected governor and served so well that he was reelected annually for the following 16 years.

Saltonstall advocated the conquest of Canada, and in 1712 he personally raised a number of troops and a large sum of money to make the expedition practical. He believed that progress could be made more swiftly if there was a greater distribution of news. Consequently he favored newspapers, and had the first printing press in the state of Connecticut set up in his own governor's house.

He was one of the ablest of the colonial governors, and under him Connecticut developed rapidly. He died in New London in 1724.

Early Vote On Amendment Will Mean Utter Failure.

Washington, Mar. 26.—Charges that Postmaster Colin M. Selph, of St. Louis, Mo., had copies of a speech by Senator Reed against the league of nations, printed in the post office printery and on paper paid for by the postoffice department, were filed today with President Wilson by Thomas F. Flaherty, secretary of the national federation of postoffice clerks.

Flaherty submitted affidavits by Philip Siegel, a printer employed in the St. Louis postoffice. Siegel also alleges that Selph had business cards made in the postoffice printery for his father, C. McKee Selph, an attorney of New Orleans, La.

WHY DO YOU COUGH?

IT IS DANGEROUS

Never neglect a cough. Neglected coughs have caused much suffering and many deaths. You can find quick and lasting relief for coughs, colds, hoarseness, throat irritations, and bronchial trouble by using Glando Pine, a highly concentrated cough compound which you mix with enough syrup to make a pint. If you bought this amount of ready-made cough medicine it would cost you about $2.50. Only pure, fresh drugs are used in Glando Pine and it can be depended upon. The first dose opens the air cells and you can breathe deep and easy. It tastes well and can be given to very young children. It keeps indefinitely. There is nothing better for croupy children. Public speakers find it to be just what they need to relieve their throat and strengthen their voice.

Get a three ounce bottle of Glando Pine (50 cents worth) and prepare it according to direction and begin on your cough or cold before it has a firm hold upon you. You may save yourself and family severe sickness. You can not afford to be without this valuable medicine in your home. You can not help but be pleased with the way it takes hold of a cough or cold. Be sure you get Glando Pine. Prepared only by the GlandAid Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

RESTFUL RESULTS FOR HER

Only a person who has experienced that awful "all night" cough that sometimes follows influenza can appreciate what a good night's sleep can be. ## HOOVER AND JOHNSON IN RACE IN STATE OF CALIFORNIA

New York, March 25.—Representative Henry E. Barber of the Seventh California District, one of the callers today at the Hiram Johnson-for-president headquarters in the Hotel Pennsylvania, said that the big issue in California now is Johnson vs. Hoover, and that other aspirants for the Republican nomination for president are not discussed, neither Wood, Lowden, Harding, Poindexter or Butler attracting any notice.

"Hoover boomers are cutting loose with money and propaganda all over the state," said Mr. Barber. "Apparently they have decided to give the Johnson men a fight in every congressional district. They are not lacking in resources or enthusiasm. Johnson will carry the state and win all the delegates, but he and his friends will have to put up a fight all the way."

SENTIMENT FAVORS ANNEXING SUBURBS

Much sentiment favoring the annexation of suburbs by the city of Dayton, was expressed by Daytonians yesterday.

The federal census figures given out, which show that Dayton's population is 135,000 were not disputed but were disappointing to many who believed that the population was much greater than that. It is thought that the population can be increased to 200,000 by the annexation of small towns near Dayton.

Nonexpensive—Cut This Out.

Thousands are making this beneficial remedy at home and anyone who has catarrh or a cold can do the same.

Ask your druggist for three quarters of an ounce of Mentholized Aroline and pour it into a pint bottle, then fill the bottle with water that has been boiled.

Gargle the throat as directed and sniff or spray the liquid into the nostrils twice daily. It's a simple way to get rid of cold and catarrh and keeps the nasal passage and throat so clean and healthy that germs of flu or any other germs will have a hard time gaining a foothold.

WAS NERVOUS AND RUN DOWN

RESTORED TO NORMAL HEALTH BY BIO-FEREN

"I feel I owe you people a world of gratitude for the benefit I have received in using your wonderful remedy—Bio-feren Tablets, which have completely restored me to normal conditions," says Joseph E. Webb of Muncie, Indiana.

Bio-feren is without doubt the grandest and quickest remedy for nervous, run down, weak, anemic men and women ever offered direct through the druggists and is not at all expensive.

Take two after each meal and one at bed time, and after seven days take one after each meal and one at bed time until the supply is exhausted.

Then if you feel that any claim made in this special notice is untrue—if you are not in better health—if you do not feel ambitious, more vigorous and keen minded, yes, twice as much as you did before, the druggist who sold you the tablets will gladly hand you back just what you paid for them.

All druggists in this city and vicinity have a supply on hand, or can easily get it for you. Seven a day for seven days—Wonderful results.

A SEASONABLE THOUGHT TO COUNTERACT THE HIGH COST OF LIVING.

To act with common sense, according to the moment, is the best wisdom there is going. And the best philosophy is to go right along performing one's ordinary duties, take the world as it comes, submit ungrudgingly to one's lot, and thank God that things are as well with us as they are. And if you can add to this the enjoyment of humor, you are more than a philosopher, you have reached the acme of the art of living.

Well now, the Treaty hasn't passed, as we had hoped it would, but God is in His heavens and the world will move on as before; but also the high cost of living continues and it is up to us to do the best we can about that. Well, sugar making has just passed, which shows that the sap is rising, and all nature preparing for a grand spring "opening." Has this any lesson for us? Shouldn't it have?

To millions of people all over this broad land it means that garden making time has arrived. Why—because therein lies about all the hope they have of counteracting the high cost of living. Have the back yard gardens performed this wonderful trick? Yes, in millions of instances all over the country—and in hundreds of cases right here in Xenia and all over Greene county.

Does it require work—oh yes, a little on Monday, a little on Tuesday, and a little on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday—a little each day, just enough to stir the blood to healthy action—just enough activity to save doctor bills.

And then think of the delights. Think of the succulent roasting-ears, of the new potatoes, of the lettuce and radishes and onions, of the tomatoes, beans and beans. Not stale from the grocery, but fresh from your own garden. Doesn't it make your mouth water? Well, you can realize it in all its delightful, toothsome fact. Plant a garden.

Here is a chance for everybody practically to get into the economic game. Back yards, vacant lots, plots, idle corners all should be utilized in every city in the land. There is a vast quantity of uncultivated ground in every city. Put it to work; cultivate it intensively; now is the time to get to work. Life is struggling upward. The gnomes of the dark are willing workers. There is rich wine dripping from the golden chalice of the sun. The hoe and the spade and the rake will enable you to touch the springs of vitality. Remember what the war gardens did for the country. Here is an opportunity to assure the thing the economists and statesmen and thinkers continuously are pleading for—increased production. Accept the baptism of the sunshine and the showers. Plant a garden.

CONDITIONS IN GERMANY.

There are so many cooks on the seething broth of the German political and industrial crisis that it is difficult to learn what actually is going on or whether events are trending. Members of the government, party representatives, labor leaders of four or five different stripes, strike committees, insurgents and semi-insurgents, virtually are in continuous conferences with themselves and each other. Positive announcements of the most conflicting nature are constantly issuing from those conferences, such as a labor government will or will not be installed or that the general strike is off or on, depending upon the source of information.

German news agency dispatches from various points in the interior reporting heavy fighting and the capture of various cities by the Red forces does not conform with government assurances and that the situation is improving, and that no tendency toward Bolshevism is shown.

Who knows but what it is just as well for us to now be out of Europe, "lock, stock and barrel," as it would have been a year ago? At all events, we don't want to sacrifice any more of the lives of our dear boys over there. The George Washington Farewell Address against "entangling alliances" is just as much alive today as it was when uttered on September 17th, 1796.

ONE YEAR'S FIRE WASTE.

Three hundred and fifty million dollars' waste in fire losses, and a toll of 15,000 deaths from fire, during one year—this is the record shown by the latest annual report of the National Board of Fire Underwriters.

The board has issued a pamphlet listing the causes which led to the losses reported above. A careful perusal of it shows that by far the greater percentage of these fires might have been prevented. Among the causes given were all of our old friends, the lighted match or cigarette thrown carelessly away, the pile of rubbish, the oil can placed in an unsafe spot, the defective chimney, the overheated stove, the electric iron left connected, the hot grease overflowing the pan, the bonfire, the sparks from the unprotected piece of machinery igniting the oily shop floor, of the bunch of shavings and so on. Twenty-two reasons in all are given for fires which could have been avoided.

It is a list which deserves wide publicity. Few can read it with out a guilty feeling, for nearly every one is certain to run across something in which he is occasionally or habitually careless.

A waste of $350,000,000 which could have been saved deserves sober consideration as an active force in sustaining that same old H. C. L. And in these days when production falls so far short, the contemplation of all this destruction which might have been avoided is disheartening.

Certainly the figures indicate plainly the need for better methods of fire prevention on the part of the individual and public as a whole.

It is often a peculiar tendency of human nature that a commendable movement is hindered in its execution by absurd argument and foolish rumor and the daylight saving plan which has been proposed for Xenia is being assailed by much of this kind of talk, which simmers the question down to whether the people shall have what they want or whether they shall not.

There must be adventurous souls to make for progress, but before taking a trip to Mars we should desire to know something of weather conditions on that planet, especially right now.

The ex-Kaiser probably daily congratulates himself on his wisdom in seeking a safe retreat before the storm in Germany broke, for with his notorious habit of sending men resembling himself into places where he was likely to encounter danger, it is entirely probable that he would have run out of material long ago.

HELPING HANDS.

"If I had a lot of money," sighs the man of dreaming soul, "I would make the world more sunny, help the people from the hole. I'd take bitters to the thirsty, heal the sick ones' pains and aches, and pack victuals wiener-wursty to the hungry rubes an' jakes. But I'm poor, and this world loses; I can drip no golden showers; ah, that pent-up Syracusee is contracting of my powers!" But a man can make things better, make his fellows smile again, though the belt beneath his sweater holds no store of iron men. I have known some benefactors who were lacking fifteen cents, and they were the ablest, actors in the ranks of helpful gents. You can give a friend assistance, help a neighbor every day, though your roll be in the distance, forty thousand miles away. You can cheer some struggling mortal, tote his burden for a while, hand the heartsick one a chorle, and the grouchy one a smile. If you had a lot of plunder, bundles that would choke a cow, would you do much more. I wonder, then we see you doing now?

This is the Birthday of Gurdon Saltonstall March 27, 1866.

Gurdon Saltonstall, one of the early governors of Connecticut, was born at Haverhill, Mass., in 1866. He was unusually bright as a boy, graduating from Harvard in 1884, when he was only 18 years old.

When Governor Winthrop died, it developed that most of his correspondence during his illness had been turned over to Saltonstall. Consequently, he knew more about the complicated relationship between England and her New England colonies than anybody else. As a result, he was very sensibly elected governor and served so well that he was reelected annually for the following 16 years.

LETTERS ON REDUCTION

Patsy—No one can make you go on a diet except yourself. After all it is a case of whether you want to indulge your stomach for a short period and have a bad figure, or go without your favorite foods for a few months in order to be youthful and slim. As I do not know your height, I cannot tell what your exact weight should be, but if you are of normal height, you must be much over weight. You should not reduce more rapidly than two pounds a week. That rate is safe and will not let the skin grow flabby and wrinkled.

I would not advise you to eliminate any one meal. Eat nothing but fruit and black coffee for breakfast and eat a light dinner and a light supper. You can either eat a normal amount of food that will not make flesh, or a small amount of any food.

Erin—A girl 18 years old, five foot one, should not weigh more than 115 lbs. Reducing at the normal rate of two pounds a week, you would weigh what you should in ten weeks. Lists of the caloric values of food appear here from time to time. As a general thing avoid pork, ham, bacon, potatoes, bread, butter pastry, starchy puddings, milk, cream and sweets.

C. E. DeC.—I do not know of any convenient way or reducing fat spots on the face. Possibly you need a diet that will reduce you all over.

F. E. L.—Without knowing your height as well as your age, I cannot tell you exactly what you should weigh. A normal weight for a girl 16 should be about 115 lbs.

Ambitious—A girl of 18, five feet five, should weigh 120 to 125 lbs. See directions to Patsy above.

Troubled Black Eyes—A girl 15, five feet tall, should weigh about 113 lbs. You are not too fat, and you are not very short. If you wish to grow taller get as much outdoor exercise as possible.

Frances L.—Send me a letter with a self-addressed, stamped envelope for the best development formula.

M. G. P.—A girl 15, five feet seven in height should weigh 132 lbs. according to insurance tables. You are only a few pounds overweight.

Curious—A girl 15, five foot three inches, should weigh about 120 lbs.

Heart and Home Problems

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I have passed twenty-two summers and have made a mistake. I read the letter written by "High Flutin' Sallie" and I wish you would publish my letter for her sake. When I was eighteen years of age I was very pretty and popular, but I started going with any boy I could and I always kissed everyone as many times as he was willing. I met a young man whom I thought a great deal of, who also cared for me, but he knew that I kissed all the boys and was very jealous of me. He told me that he loved me, but I would not give up the kisses of the other boys.

One night we had a fuss, just because I had kissed another boy, and as he left me that night he said: "I love you, but I want a wife who hasn't kissed every boy she has had a chance to." I was foolish then, but how many times those words have come back to me! I would that I were eighteen again and had the chance to marry the only man in the world for me. He is married now and I am not, although I had the chance. Oh, that I had only cared for better things then!

Maybe "High Flutin' Sallie" will take advice from one who has followed a real life drama and has failed.

BONNIE.

It is a pleasure for me to print your letter. If it doesn't influence "High Flutin' Sallie," it will surely help other girls to realize the truth about promiscuous kissing.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl eighteen. I was forced into a marriage to a man thirty years old. I only saw him three times. I just hate him and can't bear to be in his company. Should I live with him or go to the boy I love?

BROWN EYES.

It is difficult for me to advise you since I do not know the circumstances of your marriage. It seems to me, however, that you owe loyalty to your marriage vows. Surely your husband thought you cared for him. Tell him frankly how you feel and ask him to release you.

Do not think of going to the young man you love without first securing a divorce. If there is no child to hold you and your husband together, it may be better to separate now.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a fellow sixteen years old. I have met a girl I loved at first sight and we have decided to marry. Our parents object. Would it be all right for us to elope?

BILL.

No, it would not be all right to elope. You would be caught and brought back. If you succeeded in getting married, your marriage would be illegal because you are a minor. This would put a spot on the girl's reputation. It is certainly not worth while to compromise her.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl eighteen years old and am to be married in February. I would like to have you suggest what I should wear.

I had thought of buying a navy blue suit and white crepe de chine blouse, or a blue taffeta dress with georgette overskirt and sleeves. Do you think either of these would be suitable? Which would you prefer?

I have brown eyes, jet black hair and a fair complexion. Do you think some other color would become me better?

A DAILY READER.

Either the suit or the dress would be serviceable for your wedding attire. If you have a good coat, I would suggest the dress in preference to the suit, but if you are in need of a coat, the suit would be better. Navy blue ought to be very becoming to you.

BATHING SUIT IDEAS BROUGHT BACK FROM PALM BEACH FOR NORTHERN SUMMER

If you are one of those methodical women who always has the home swimmer come in March or April to do the sewing for the season you will surely want some hints as to what the bathing suits will be like next July and August. Of course, it is a bit early for those people who live in the northern half of the country to think about swimming, but it is none the less early to think about swimming suits. Many smart and pretty styles, me darning, some conservative and some ordinary were displayed on the northern beaches this season and those styles will undoubtedly persist through the summer season. The swimmer, of course, will always wear a merest covering of jersey, either sleeveless with a tiny skirt or a regular man's bathing suit which may have small sleeves. The girl who sits on the beach and gets a nice coat of tan instead of swimming and tanning a nice shapely arm has a number of pretty styles to choose from. Here are two of the newest models which were displayed at Palm Beach.

POLICEMAN ADMITS FORGERY; BOY VICTIM

Cleveland, March 27.—Patrolman Leon A. Harde was arrested late yesterday following an alleged confession to Chief of Police Smith that he had forged and cashed a check for $10 and then tried to convict an innocent youth for his crime. He was charged with forgery.

Harde had been the principal witness today at the trial of Shelton Brown, 19 years old, and testified that he cashed a check for Brown that proved to be a forgery.

Upon testimony of hand writing experts Brown was dismissed and Judge Frank Phillips ordered a grand jury investigation of Harde's responsibility for the forgeries.

After being questioned at police headquarters Harde confessed to Chief Smith and also admitted forging and cashing another check.

Harde joined the police department last October.

EVANGELIST WILL CONDUCT REVIVALS IN XENIA CHURCHES

Dr. Beiderwolf, well-known evangelist, who conducted a revival in this city several years ago, will return here for a two weeks' revival in April.

Dr. Beiderwolf will be here for two weeks, conducting services at the First and Second United Presbyterian churches, being one week at each church. He will be here from April 11 to April 25. During his stay here, Dr. Beiderwolf will lecture to the students of the Xenia Theological Seminary every afternoon.

ERIE TO SAVE TIME

DECLARES GERMAN CAN MOBILIZE OVER 3 MILLION

Paris, March 27.—Germany, in the event of mobilization, can place an army of 3,400,000 men in the field, says Henry Dido, well-known French war correspondent, in a dispatch to Lejournal from Mayence. He adds that Germany secretly has re-enforced her once famous war machine, which in 1915 was virtually shattered. Officers, he says, are available to command an army of 4,000,000 men.

EXHIBIT GERMAN BIBLE

Bueyru.—A German Bible, printed in Nurnburg in 1736, was exhibited at a local church this week. It was sent from Germany to John Krauter, now dead, prior to 1806, is 11 by 13 inches in size and 4 1/2 inches thick and weighs 14 pounds.

ASTHMA WOULD'NT LET HIM LIE DOWN

Hasn't had a sign of trouble now for over 9 months.

"A year ago I had asthma so bad my friends thought I would never get over it. I had doctor for a long time without results. I had not been in bed for 3 weeks, could not even sit up straight in a chair. Then I heard of Milks Emulsion and started using it. It was only two days later that I could go to bed and sleep soundly. After taking eight bottles ($4 worth) I found myself completely cured. It is over 9 months now since I quit taking Milks Emulsion, and I haven't had a symptom of asthma since."—Geo. W. Baker, R. F. D. 1, Latrobe, Pa.

Why shouldn't Milks Emulsion help you? It has worked wonders for others. It costs nothing to try. Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whose sickness has weakened, and is a powerful aid in resisting and repairing the effects of wasting diseases. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and $1.20 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by druggists everywhere. Guaranteed by Sayre & Hemphill.

Use Cuticura To Keep Children's Skins Healthy

If mothers would only use Cuticura Soap and Ointment for every-day toilet and nursery purposes, how much suffering might be avoided by preventing little skin and scalp troubles becoming serious. Cuticura Talcum is also excellent for little ones, it is delicately medicated and exquisitely perfumed.

Sample Each Free by Mail. Address: "Cuticura Laboratories, Dept. 347, Malden, Mass." Sold everywhere. Soap 5c, Ointment 2c and 5c. Talcum 5c. 10c. Cuticura Soap shaves without razor.

LETTERS ON REDUCTION

Patsy—No one can make you go on a diet except yourself. After all it is a case of whether you want to indulge your stomach for a short period and have a bad figure, or go without your favorite foods for a few months in order to be youthful and slim. As I do not know your weight, I cannot tell what your exact weight should be, but if you are of normal height, you must be much over weight. You should not reduce more rapidly than two pounds a week. That rate is safe and will not let the skin grow flabby and wrinkled.

I would not advise you to eliminate any one meal. Eat nothing but fruit and black coffee for breakfast and eat a light dinner and a light supper. You can either eat a normal amount of food that will not make flesh, or a small amount of any food.

Erin—A girl 18 years old, five foot one, should not weigh more than 115 lbs. Reducing at the normal rate of one pound a week, you would weigh what you should in ten weeks. Lists of the caloric values of food appear here from time to time. As a general thing avoid pork, ham, bacon, potatoes, bread, butter pastry, starches.

C. E. DeC.—I do not know of any convenient way of reducing fat spots on the face. Possibly you need a diet that will reduce you all over.

F. E. L.—Without knowing your height as well as your age, I cannot tell you exactly what you should weigh. A normal weight for a girl 16 should be about 115 lbs.

Ambitious—A girl of 18, five feet five, should weigh 120 to 125 lbs. See directions to Patsy above.

Troubled Black Eyes—A girl 15, five feet tall, should weigh about 113 lbs. You are not too fat, and you are not very short. If you wish to grow taller get as much outdoor exercise as possible.

Frances L.—Send me a letter with a self-addressed, stamped envelope for the bust development formula.

M. G. P.—A girl 15, five feet seven in height should weigh 132 lbs. according to insurance tables. You are only a few pounds overweight.

Curious—A girl 15, five foot three inches, should weigh about 120 lbs.

Heart and Home Problems

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I have passed twenty-two summers and have made a mistake. I read the letter written by "High Flutin' Sallie" and I wish you would publish my letter for her sake. When I was eighteen years of age I was very pretty and popular, but I started going with any boy I could and I always kissed everyone as many times as he was willing. I met a young man whom I thought a great deal of, who also cared for me, but he knew that I kissed all the boys and was very jealous of me. He told me that he loved me, but I would not give up the kisses of the other boys.

One night we had a fuss, just because I had kissed another boy, and as he left me that night he said: "I love you, but I want a wife who hasn't kissed every boy she has had a chance to." I was foolish then, but how many times those words have come back to me! I would that I were eighteen again and had the chance to marry the only man in the world for me. He is married now and I am not, although I had the chance. Oh, that I had only cared for better things then!

Maybe "High Flutin' Sallie" will take advice from one who has followed a real life drama and has failed. BONNIE.

It is a pleasure for me to print your letter. If it doesn't influence "High Flutin' Sallie," it will surely help other girls to realize the truth about promiscuous kissing.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl eighteen. I was forced into a marriage to a man thirty years old. I only saw him three times. I just hate him and can't bear to be in his company. Should I live with him or go to the boy I love? BROWN EYES.

It is difficult for me to advise you

East End Has 11 Churches Serving Population of 2100

HOW many churches are devoted to the colored people in the East End of this city?

Wrong. Guess again. As a matter of fact there are ten separate churches, each with a supporting congregation of worthy size, which administer to the spiritual side of the colored race in Xenia.

Are the colored people more religious than their white brethren? Perhaps. At least this remarkable fact, culled from information secured recently in the East End, would seem to show it. Among a population that the recent census report is said to give as 2,100, the number of churches and work hard to support that probably cannot be excelled, in comparison to population, any place in the United States.

And the number of churches would also seem to indicate that the colored people of Xenia are more religious than the white people. In comparison to number, the number of colored churches almost equalling the number of white churches catering to a population almost five times as large.

Of the number of colored congregations, many are housed in the best of edifices, and two others are to build upon the present sites very shortly. Three of the churches are among the best in the city, while others are well and comfortably housed in older churches. Two of the three best edifices are practically new.

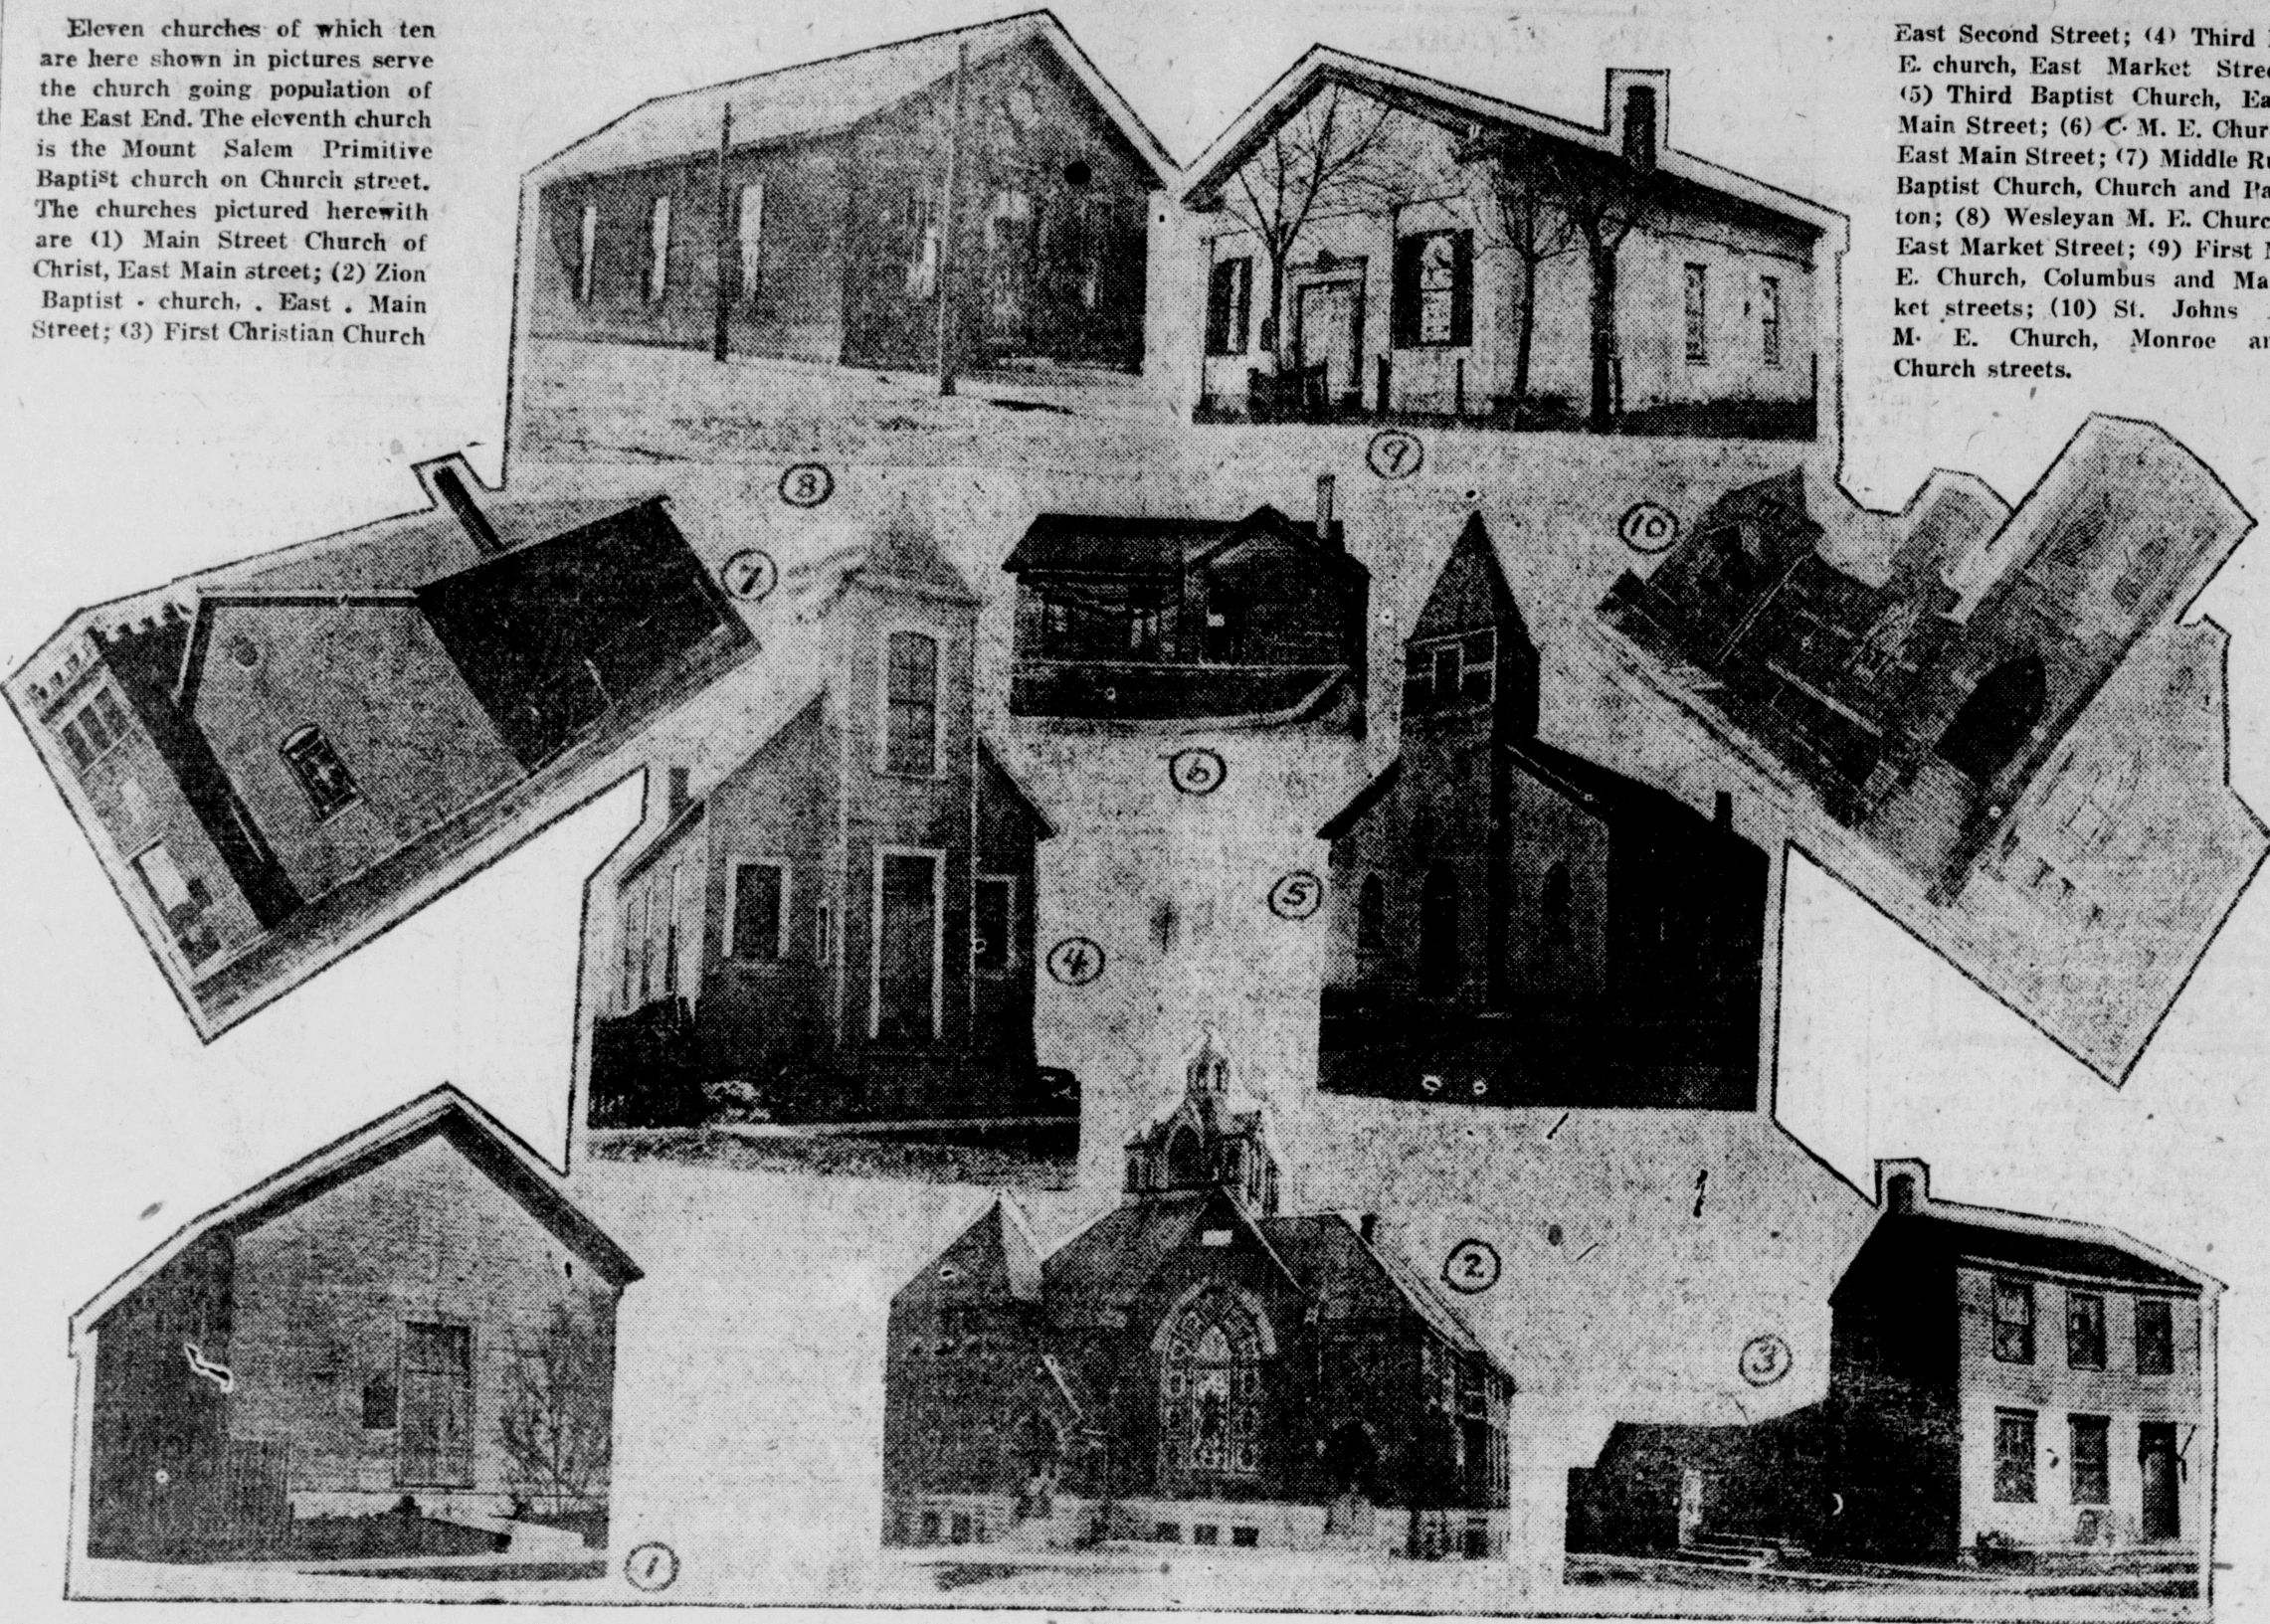

Perhaps it is the presence of Wilberforce University offering easy access to the colored people of this city, that is responsible for the number of churches and church going people in this city. The university is standing like a bulwark in the forward advance of the colored race educationally and religiously, and it is only to be supposed that colored residents of this city, benefitting by the radiance of good work being carried on by that institution, should be well in advance of the movement among colored people, to which the ten churches stand mute testimony.

Naturally religiously inclined, the colored people appreciate their churches and work hard to support them and at the same time progress. Although many of the supporters of the churches are themselves in straitened circumstances financially, the quality of their churches, shows that they are not penurious when their particular religious sect needs financial encouragement.

There are probably many in this city, who did not know that the colored residents of Xenia, boasted of as many churches as they really do. Many more never dreamed of the religious work that is being carried on by these churches.

It is a good thing, however, to know your neighbor, and while the fact that there are ten colored churches here may be an enlightenment to many people, it should also be a spur to them in showing that their colored brethren are making advances in the way of religious education that is bound to place the race locally far in advance of many localities, of either color.

Eleven churches of which ten are here shown in pictures serve the church going population of the East End. The eleventh church is the Mount Salem Primitive Baptist church on Church street. The churches pictured herewith are (1) Main Street Church of Christ, East Main street; (2) Zion Baptist church, East Main Street; (3) First Christian Church

GROUND IS BROKEN FOR NEW BUILDING IN DAYTON SATURDAY

Ground was broken Saturday afternoon for the new building of the Benezra Theological Seminary, to be erected at Calapa and Cornell drives in Dayton.

J. P. Landis, president of the Seminary, Mayor J. M. Switzer and Bishop C. M. Matthews, president of the board of directors, were the speakers at the formal rites of ground breaking. Dr. J. E. Pout, general manager of the seminary will turn the first spadeful of earth.

The new administration building, which will be erected first, will cost $100,000. It will contain offices and recitation room, with a recreational room in the basement. The dormitory building will contain 126 rooms, with dining room, kitchen and laundry in the basement. The estimate cost is $250,000. The central heating plant with additional living quarters for janitors will cost about $50,000.

The Seminary was founded in 1871, and the present building located at First street and Euclid avenue, was erected in 1878. The institution has outgrown its present quarters, necessitating the erection of the new buildings. Sixty-eight students are enrolled in the Seminary this year.

SCHOOL REVENUE LAWS NOW SATISFACTORY

New school revenue laws are satisfactory, excepting for the fact that country districts will pay more into the newly established state and county funds than they will receive back, according to speakers Friday afternoon and evening at the Western Ohio Superintendents' Round Table held in Dayton.

It was pointed out by the educators, however, that keeping all salaries about the $800 mark will increase the amount received back. Under present conditions it is believed that cities will fare a little better than the rich country districts.

Dr. F. B. Dyer of Cincinnati, who has been a member of the Round Table for 30 years and says he never wants to miss a meeting, led the discussion on helpful supervision of teachers, and said one thing to look for in a school room is whether the children are happily busy.

Paris, March 27.—A British protectorate is to be proclaimed over Turkey, according to a report printed by the Eclair today.

STERLING EXCHANGE MAKES BIG ADVANCE AT STOCK MARKET

New York, March 27.—A sensational advance was made by sterling exchange in the market today, the rise preceding the following advances of the engagement of gold valued at 4,000,000 pounds sterling in London for shipment to this country. Demand bills rose to $3.95 and cables went a fraction higher, while long-time remittances made corresponding gains with moderate reactions in the latter dealings.

Today's maximum quotations represented a gain of 8 1/4 cents from yesterday's high, 16 3/4 cents for the week and an extreme of 77 cents from the low of last month, when international credits here were demoralized.

Bankers were without direct knowledge of the impending gold imports. They attributed the movement to arrangements already made to anticipate in part at least, payment of the

East End Has 11 Churches Serving Population of 2100

HOW many churches are devoted to the colored people in the East End of this city? Wrong. Guess again. As a matter of fact there are ten separate churches, each with a supporting congregation of worthy size, which administer to the spiritual side of the colored race in Xenia.

Are the colored people more religious than their white brethren? Perhaps. At least this remarkable fact, culled from information secured recently in the East End, would seem to show it. Among a population that the recent census report is said to give as 2,100, the number of churches and work hard to support that probably cannot be excelled, in comparison to population, any place in the United States.

And the number of churches would also seem to indicate that the colored people of Xenia are more religious than the white people, in comparison to number, the number of colored churches almost equalling the number of white churches catering to a population almost five times as large.

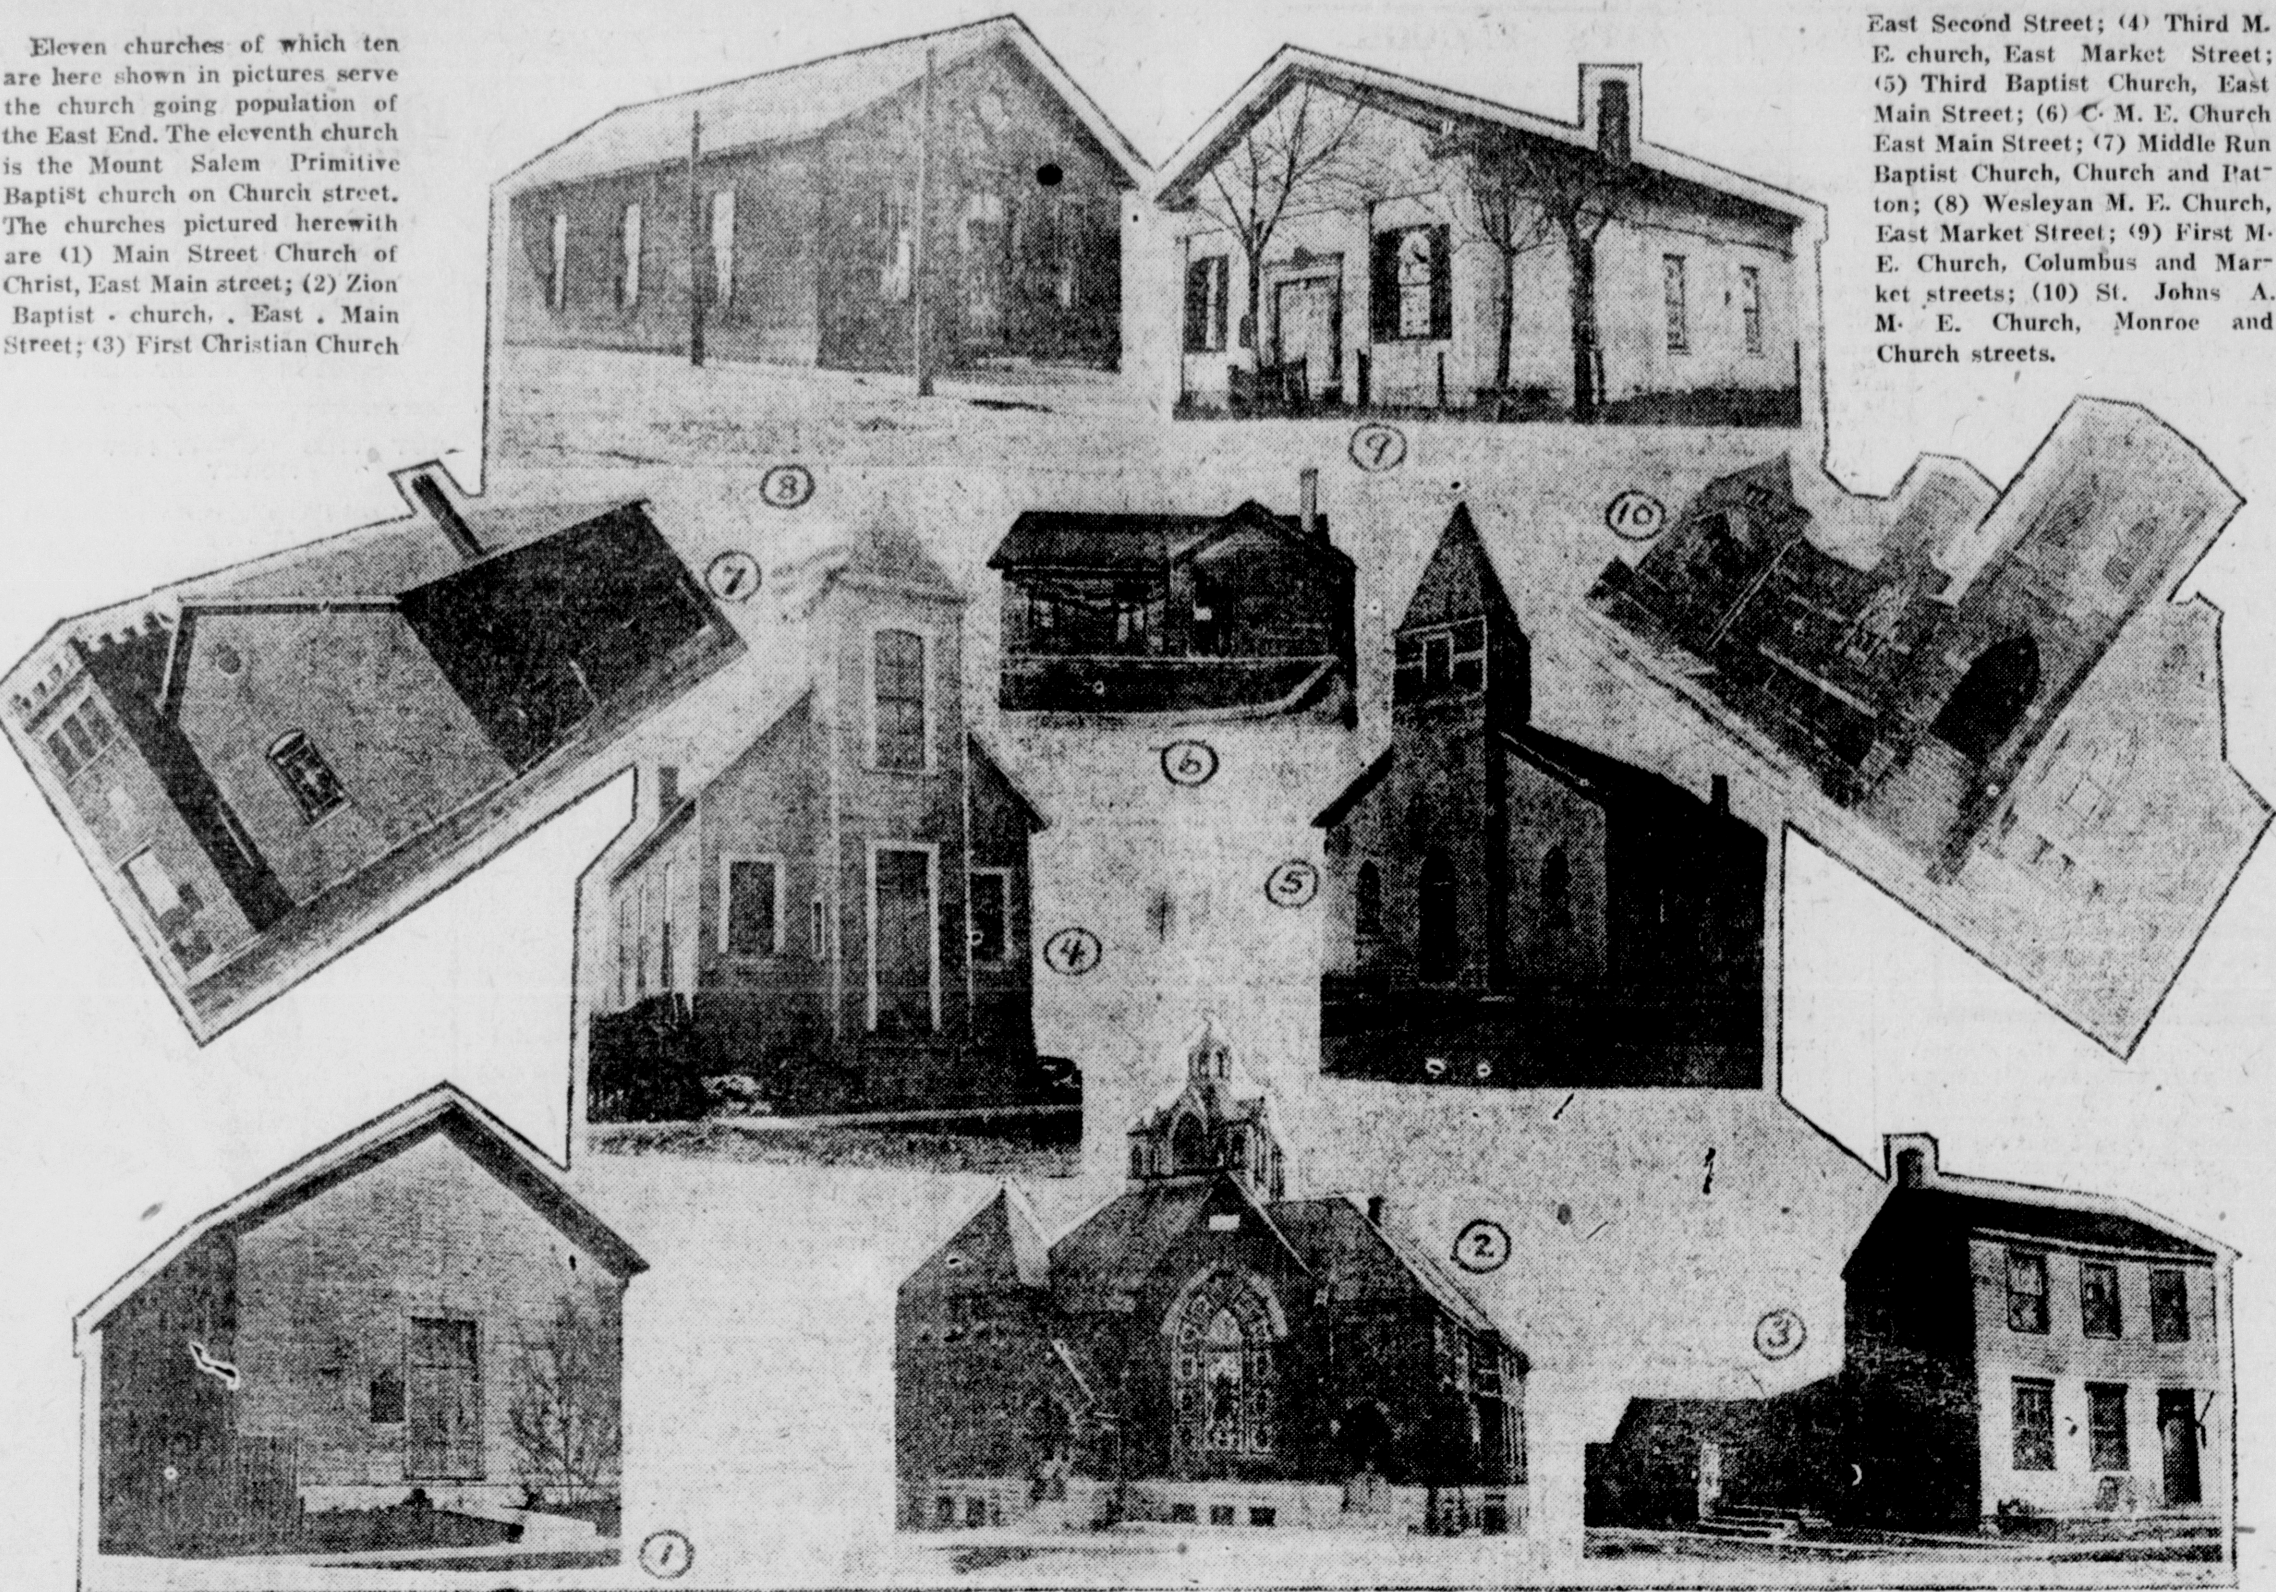

Of the number of colored congregations, many are housed in the best of edifices, and two others are to build upon the present sites very shortly. Three of the churches are among the best in the city, while others are well and comfortably housed in older churches. Two of the three best edifices are practically new.

Perhaps it is the presence of Wilberforce University offering easy access to the colored people of this city, that is responsible for the number of churches and church going people in this city. The university is standing like a bulwark in the forward advance of the colored race educationally and religiously, and it is only to be supposed that colored residents of this city, benefitting by the radiance of good work being carried on by that institution, should be well in advance of the movement among colored people, to which the ten churches stand mute testimony.

Naturally religiously inclined, the colored people appreciate their churches and work hard to support them and at the same time progress. Although many of the supporters of the churches are themselves in straitened circumstances financially, the quality of their churches, shows that they are not penurious when their particular religious sect needs financial encouragement.

There are probably many in this city, who did not know that the colored residents of Xenia, boasted of as many churches as they really do. Many more never dreamed of the religious work that is being carried on by these churches.

It is a good thing, however, to know your neighbor, and while the fact that there are ten colored churches here may be enlightening to many people, it should also be a spur to them in showing that their colored brethren are making advances in the way of religious education that is bound to place the race locally far in advance of many localities, of either color.

Household Hints

MENU HINT.
Breakfast.
Grapefruit. Sour Milk Pancakes. Coffee.
Maple Syrup.

Luncheon.
Baked Beans with Fresh Side Pork. Pickles. Bread.
Jelly. Cookies. Tea.
Dinner.
Baked Pickered with Tomato Sauce. Mashed Potatoes. Lettuce Salad. Lemon Pie.

RECIPES FOR A DAY.
Baked Mackerel with Tomato Sauce.—Wash and clean fish, leaving head on and cleaning it well; then salt and pepper fish and put in baking pan that has first been heated and has four tablespoons of lard or melted fish fryings in it, and cover and bake slowly, turning fish with pancake turner to avoid breaking, and bake on both sides. Takes about one hour for fish of five pounds.
Serve on platter with tomato sauce made in sauce pan with two tablespoons of flour, tablespoon butter, three-quarter cup strained tomato, one-half cup water, dash cayenne, salt and pepper. This sauce is also very good on steak.
Lettuce Salad.—Cut piece of bacon into small cubes and fry until all fat is fried out of bacon, while still hot add one cup vinegar and tablespoon sugar; cover over lettuce and onion that has been sliced fine; salt and pepper and mix all well.
Grapefruit Salad.—Peel the grapefruit and remove pieces in sections. Cut sections in halves and marinate for twenty minutes. Arrange on lettuce in the shape of a dome and place a narrow strip of pimento or green pepper between each section. Cut a piece of the pepper with a fancy cutter: put on top of dome. This is a delicious salad. Any kind of dressing may be used.

QUICK DESSERTS
Baked Fruit Rolls.—Prepare plain biscuit mixture. Roll out on a floured board in an oblong shape half an inch thick. Spread with one cup of washed raisins, two tablespoons granulated sugar mixed with half a teaspoon cinnamon and a teaspoon of butter cut in small bits.
Roll like a jelly roll and place in an oiled bread pan. Sprinkle with a little sugar and bake twenty-five minutes in a moderate oven. Serve with sauce.
Note.—Chopped apples, or stewed dried fruits may be used instead of the raisins. It may be further varied by cutting the roll into one and one-half inch slices and baking in oiled muffin pans, which hold the sections in shape.
Quick Apple Cake.—To the plain biscuit mixture add one beaten egg, one teaspoon grated lemon rind, and three tablespoons sugar. Place in an oiled pan, spread with melted butter and cover the top thickly with thinly sliced apples. Sprinkle with sugar and cinnamon and bake in a moderate oven until the apples are tender and the cake brown.
Drop Biscuits.—Drop biscuits are made by adding more liquid to the plain biscuit mixture. Drop from a spoon on to a well oiled pan or into muffin pans and bake in a hot oven about ten minutes.
Boiled Fruit Dumplings.—Heat one quart of stewed, sweetened fruit to the boiling point. Spare one-half of the drop biscuit recipe and drop from a teaspoon on to the boiling fruit as quickly as possible. Cover pan closely and cook without lifting cover for fifteen minutes. Turn out on to a hot platter.

Nellie visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Owens of Springfield, Sunday afternoon.

Little Jack Esterline is very sick for the last week.

ALLEGES MEXICANS MISTREATED CITIZEN OF U. S. RECENTLY

Washington, March 26.—Evidence of mistreatment at the hands of Mexican bandits was given today before the senate sub-committee investigating Mexican conditions, by William A. Garrett, of Tulsa, Okla., owner of a ranch in Mexico. The bandits entered Garrett's Mexican ranch during one of his trips there demanding $5,000. After giving all he had, the bandits "not being satisfied" knocked me, unconscious," Garrett said.

"When I return to consciousness they placed a rope around my neck and lifted me from the ground twice," Garrett declared.

Garrett said the treatment accorded him was the general policy of the bandits in Mexico.

PRESIDENT TO SEND TREATY TO SENATE SOON AS POSSIBLE

Washington, Mar. 26.—President Wilson will send the treaty of Versailles back to the senate again, if a favorable opportunity is afforded. This was learned today from administration officials close to the president.

For the present the president is content to let the treaty rest without action and will take no steps to patch up a temporary peace, it was asserted. The president holds the belief that public opinion will bring the senate to final ratification of the treaty and he is awaiting the formulation of such opinion.

Resolutions declaring a separate peace with Germany will not get far, the president believes. He does not think congress will be able to agree on any such resolutions, and if one should be passed he will use his power of disapproval.

A MODERN STORY OF HOME AND BUSINESS

A PARTY CHAPTER 88
"I'm going to give a party, Robert?" I told him at breakfast the next morning. Long after he slept, I thought of how I could win him back. That was the way I felt. Marion Hovey had more of a hold on him than I did. I must get him away without letting him know I was doing it.

"Hurrah! I'm for that! When will you have it?"

"In a day or two. I'll have the Weeds and Murphys and Mary and Gardner and Marion Hovey."

"Marion would be the odd one. Have her some other time."

I thought perhaps I would ask Jack Tate.

"I wouldn't—the place is too small."

"All right, just the three couples besides ourselves. We will have two tables for bridge if we should care to play."

My heart sang for joy. I didn't quite understand his reason but that Robert had objected to having Marion Hovey made me happy. I was delighted that I had mentioned her. He would not think me jealous.

I was trying very hard to make Robert happy. I had tried always, but not so consciously. That day at Marion Hovey's had convinced me that more effort was needed if I were to hold him, or win back the lover I had almost, if not quite, lost.

Yet I could see no way to change our manner of living. Robert's salary was so small. Over and over I turned things in my mind in the long almost idle days when we first took Mary's flat. I could loaf, as Gardner called it, better after a few days absence from the shop. In fact, a sort of inertia seemed to creep over me, and I sat for hours staring out of the window thinking of the future, how to make it happy.

We had been in the flat just a week when I gave my party. The first few days I had noticed no particular change in Robert, save in his appetite. He went out immediately after dinner once that week, and had been with Marion that second night. Perhaps he had also gone to her the night he went out after dinner.

But when I commenced to make preparations for my party, he seemed to all at once feel some responsibility. He was interested and helped plan the supper. Then when they came he played the host to perfection. For that evening he was the old Robert come to life.

"What have you been doing with Robert?" He is more like he used to be when we first knew him," Betty Weed said to me.

"Nothing—he is so pleased to have you all where we can entertain you ourselves, that is all." I thought I was telling the truth.

"It is awfully cozy here." Then she turned to Mary "How does it seem to have some one else using your apartment, Mary?"

"As long as it is an even exchange it is all right; but honest Injun, I wouldn't live in that boarding house the rest of my life if they would give it to me and throw in the boarders, I'd as soon stay in the morgue."

"That's what it is!" Robert declared, "a morgue."

I changed the subject. As long as we had to live there or some place like it, what was the use of making it the subject of unpleasant remarks.

My supper was a success—so they all said; and I would have known it only to look at Robert. He fairly beamed as he served our guests.

Afterward we played bridge. It was midnight when they left, but Robert insisted upon helping me clear away, altho I would not do the dishes until morning.

"You are the working member of this family nowadays, Bob, so must get your rest. I have so little to do that I scarcely know how to pass the time."

"My work!" The sarcasm in his voice, the abasement hurt me. I guess that won't hurt me, judging by the pay."

"But you'll get more pay soon. I was thinking of that yesterday. Rob. Sometimes a clever man in a small establishment stands as good or better show than a man in a larger place. You say their methods are antiquated, that they have no system. Why don't you suggest changes? Show them you know the business and then strike for more money?"

"Golly, I believe it could be done? Perhaps I might do something along that line." The last remark without enthusiasm.

Tomorrow—A New Idea.

We Mean It!

For about four months this bank has been urging the farmers hereabouts to read THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN. We have done it because we believe in THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN. This Great National Farm Weekly offers actual money-making helps to those farmers who read it regularly and follow its advice. Its subscribers have in the main become the most prosperous farmers in their counties the Nation over. And that is why we should like to see it in every farm home in our county. We mean it when we say: Read

The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN

In a recent investigation among farmers the question was asked: "What helps you most?" One third answered: "My farm paper." They were able to put a dollars-and-cents value on the advice they read. THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN is National—broad enough to cover the United States and give a nationwide viewpoint; and at the same time it is local enough to treat of methods and practices section by section. Subscribe for a year! It will cost you $1.00 for 52 big weekly issues—and many a farmer has profited $100.00 from hints in a single issue. If you say so we'll charge your account $1.00 and see that your subscription begins at once. We mean it!

Household Hint

MENU HINT.
Breakfast.
Grapefruit Sour Milk Pancakes Coffee
Maple Syrup

Luncheon.
Baked Beans with Fresh Side Pork Pickles Cookies Tea
Jelly Dinner.

Baked Pickler with Tomato Sauce Mashed Potatoes, Lettuce Salad Lemon Pie

RECIPES FOR A DAY.
Baked Mackerel with Tomato Sauce—Wash and clean fish, leaving head on and cleaning it well; then salt and pepper fish and put in baking pan that has first been heated and has four tablespoons of lard or melted fish fryings in it, and cover and bake slowly, turning fish with pancake turner to avoid breaking, and bake on both side. Takes about one hour for fish of five pounds.

Serve on platter with tomato sauce made in sauce pan with two tablespoons of flour, tablespoon butter, three-quarter cup strained tomato, one-half cup water, dash cayenne, salt and pepper. This sauce is also very good on steak.

Lettuce Salad—Cut piece of bacon into small cubes and fry until all fat is fried out of bacon, while still hot add one cup vinegar and tablespoon sugar; cover over lettuce and onion, that has been sliced fine; salt and pepper and mix all well.

Grapefruit Salad—Peel the grapefruit and remove pieces in sections. Cut sections in halves and marinate for twenty minutes. Arrange on lettuce in the shape of a dome and place a narrow strip of bismento or green pepper between each section. Cut a piece of the pepper with a fancy cutter: put on top of dome. This is a delicious salad. Any kind of dressing may be used.

QUICK DESSERTS
Baked Fruit Rolls—Prepare plain biscuit mixture. Roll out on a floured board in an oblong shape half an inch thick. Spread with one cup of washed raisins, two tablespoons granulated sugar mixed with half a teaspoon cinnamon and a teaspoon of butter cut in small bits.

Roll like a jelly roll and place in an oiled bread pan. Sprinkle with a little sugar and bake twenty-five minutes in a moderate oven. Serve with sauce.

Note—Chopped apples, or stewed dried fruits may be used instead of the raisins. It may be further varied by cutting the roll into one and one-half inch slices and baking in oiled muffin pans, which hold the sections in shape.

Quick Apple Cake—To the plain biscuit mixture add one beaten egg, one teaspoon grated lemon rind, and three tablespoons sugar. Place in an oiled pan, spread with melted butter and cover the top thickly with thinly sliced apples. Sprinkle with sugar and cinnamon and bake in a moderate oven until the apples are tender and the cake brown.

Drop Biscuits—Drop biscuits are made by adding more liquid to the plain biscuit mixture. Drop from a spoon on to a well oiled pan or into muffin pans and bake in a hot oven about ten minutes.

Boiled Fruit Dumplings—Heat one quart of stewed, sweetened fruit to the boiling point. Spare one-half of the drop biscuit recipe and drop from a teaspoon on to the boiling fruit as quickly as possible. Cover pan closely and cook without lifting cover for fifteen minutes. Turn out on to a hot platter.

Nellie visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Owens of Springfield, Sunday afternoon.

Little Jack Esterline is very sick for the last week.

ALLEGES MEXICANS

MISTREATED CITIZEN

OF U. S. RECENTLY

Washington, March 26.—Evidence of mistreatment at the hands of Mexican bandits was given today before the senate sub-committee investigating Mexican conditions, by William A. Garrett, of Tulsa, Okla., owner of a ranch in Mexico. The bandits entered Garrett's Mexican ranch during one of his trips there demanding $5,000. After giving all he had, the bandits "not being satisfied" knocked me unconscious," Garrett said.

"When I return to consciousness they placed a rope around my neck and lifted me from the ground twice," Garrett declared.

Garrett said the treatment accorded him was the general policy of the bandits in Mexico.

Resolutions declaring a separate peace with Germany will not get far, the president believes. He does not think congress will be able to agree on any such resolutions, and if one should be passed he will use his power of disapproval.

For the present the president is content to let the treaty rest without action and will take no steps to patch up a temporary peace, it was asserted. The president holds the belief that public opinion will bring the senate to final ratification of the treaty and he is awaiting the formulation of such opinion.

A MODERN STORY OF HOME AND BUSINESS

A PARTY CHAPTER 88

"I'm going to give a party, Robert!" I told him at breakfast the next morning. Long after he slept I thought of how I could win him back. That was the way I felt. Marion Hovey had more of a hold on him than I did. I must get him away without letting him know I was doing it.

"Hurrah! I'm for that! When will you have it?"

"In a day or two. I'll have the Weeds and Murphys and Mary and Gardner and Marion Hovey."

"Marion would be the odd one. Have her some other time."

I thought perhaps I would ask Jack Tate.
